Timeless Landscape Design Mary Palmer Dargan, Hugh Graham Dargan, 2007 Hugh and Mary Palmer Dargan share the secret to creating an unforgettable landscape with the Four Part Master Plan a unique method they've perfected over the past 25 years of creating award winning gardens and yards The Dargans share a blend of design techniques and practical advice on how to achieve the sophisticated look of a professionally designed landscape on any size and type of property Design treatments are beautifully illustrated with color photographs landscape plans and before and after examples of the authors work Publisher description Timeless Landscape Design Mary Palmer Dargan, 2007 The most important ingredients of a powerful landscape are usually not plants flowers buildings or trees The key to success lies in the basic tools of visual art the four art elements line color form and texture and the broader principles of design such as proportion scale and focalization All gardens that have stood the test of time convey the power these tools hold over the human imagination Crafting a four part master plan depends on their skillful application a lifelong pursuit The following is a small taste of what these tools are and how they work on the land Lifelong Landscape Design Mary Palmer Dargan, 2012-10-01 Lifelong landscape design means thinking about more than your garden It involves encouraging your community to be a well rooted environment consisting of friends who share home grown produce walk in the neighborhood recycle water harvest compost and are watchful of each other's well being Lifelong landscape designs create environments that connect with nature encompass a home and promote healthy living by providing mobility social interaction and places to sustain the body and soul Learn easy steps to design your own lifelong landscape through more than 200 landscape patterns and activities that illustrate components of healthy living Enhance the quality of your life at any stage with practical advice from this inspirational landscape architect with more than 30 years experience Of Gardens Paula Deitz, 2011-11-29 Paula Deitz has delighted readers for more than thirty years with her vivid descriptions of both famous and hidden landscapes Her writings allow readers to share in the experience of her extensive travels from the waterways of Britain's Castle Howard to the Japanese gardens of Kyoto and home again to New York City's Central Park Collected for the first time the essays in Of Gardens record her great adventure of continual discovery not only of the artful beauty of individual gardens but also of the intellectual and historical threads that weave them into patterns of civilization from the modest garden for family subsistence to major urban developments Deitz's essays describe how people over many centuries and in many lands have expressed their originality by devoting themselves to cultivation and conservation During a visit to the Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Garden in Seal Harbor Maine Deitz first came to appreciate the notion that landscape architecture can be as intricately conceived as any major structure and is indeed the means by which we redeem the natural environment through design Years later as she wandered through the gardens of Versailles she realized that because gardens give structure without confinement they encourage a liberation of movement and thought In Of Gardens we follow Deitz down paths of revelation viewing A Bouquet of British Parks Liverpool Edinburgh and London the parks and promenades of Jerusalem the Moonlight Garden of the Taj Mahal a Tuscan style villa in southern California and the rooftop garden at Tokyo s Mori Center among many other sites Deitz covers individual landscape architects and designers including Andr Le N tre Frederick Law Olmsted Beatrix Farrand Russell Page and Michael Van Valkenburgh She then features an array of parks public places and gardens before turning her attention to the burgeoning business of flower shows The volume concludes with a memorable poetic epilogue entitled A Winter Garden of Yellow
