Modern Spanish Lyrics Sylvanus Griswold Morley, 1913 A Bibliography of Spanish-American Literature Alfred Coester, 1912 Babel, 2003 Modernismo, Modernity and the Development of Spanish American Literature Cathy L. Jrade, 2010-01-01 A CHOICE Outstanding Academic Book Modernismo arose in Spanish American literature as a confrontation with and a response to modernizing forces that were transforming Spanish American society in the later nineteenth century. In this book Cathy L Jrade undertakes a full exploration of the modernista project and shows how it provided a foundation for trends and movements that have continued to shape literary production in Spanish America throughout the twentieth century. Jrade opens with a systematic consideration of the development of modernismo and then proceeds with detailed analyses of works poetry narrative and essays that typified and altered the movement's course. In this way she situates the writing of key authors such as Rubén Darío, José Martí, and Leopoldo Lugones within the overall modernista project and traces modernismo's influence on subsequent generations of writers. Jrade's analysis reclaims the power of the visionary stance taken by these creative intellectuals. She firmly abolishes any lingering tendency to associate modernismo with affectation and effete elegance, revealing instead how the modernistas' new literary language expressed their profound political and epistemological concerns.

Appleton's New Spanish-English and English-Spanish Dictionary Arturo Cuyás, 1903 Writing for Inclusion Karen Ruth Kornweibel, 2018-09-15 Writing for Inclusion is a study of some of the ways the idea of national identity developed in the nineteenth century in two neighboring nations Cuba and The United States. The book examines symbolic narrative and sociological commonalities in the writings of four Afro Cuban and African American writers: Juan Francisco Manzano and Frederick Douglass, fugitive slaves during mid century; and Martín Morá, Delgado, and Charles W. Chesnutt from the post slavery period. All four share sensitivity to their imperfect inclusion as full citizens, engage in an examination of the process of racialization that hinders them in seeking such inclusion and contest their definition as non citizens. Works discussed include the slave narratives of Manzano and Douglass, Manzano's poetry and play Zafira, and Douglass's oratory and novella The Heroic Slave. Also considered within the context provided by Manzano and Douglass are Morá and Chesnutt's non fiction writings about race and nation as well as their second generation tragic mulata novels Sofía and The House Behind the Cedars. Based on an examination of the works of these four authors, Writing for Inclusion provides a detailed examination of examples of self emancipation, the authors' symbolic use of language, their expression of social anxieties or irony within the quest for recognition and their arguments for an inclusive vision of national identity beyond the quagmires of race By focusing on the process of racialization and ideas of race and national identity in a comparative context the study seeks to highlight the artificial and contested nature of both terms and suggest new ways to interrogate them in our present day University of California Publications in Modern Philology Rudolph
