Janet Warren,2022-12-07 Contemporary society can be described as splintered busy and noisy but also empty and in need of healing Christians are called to sing the Lord s song anew to the world but are sometimes confused about whether to prioritize loving God or loving our neighbor This collection of essays shows that both are needed mission and spiritual disciplines are actually intertwined and reciprocal Some contributors to this volume take a theoretical perspective others write from their experience in ministry Disciplines discussed include classic ones like prayer and study as well as novel ones like cruciformity mindfulness and neighborhood engagement Written in accessible language with multiple anecdotes this book aims to inspire both the practice of spiritual disciplines and the practice of mission Join us as we journey from the Philippines to American nationalism to a prayer truck in inner city Hamilton as we engage in quiet contemplation as well as compassionate action Guided by the Holy Spirit we dance rhythms of resting and responding listening and leading praying and proclaiming Whether through solitude discipleship groups inviting strangers to dinner speaking out against idolatry and injustice or simply being present we join Jesus as he repairs the splintered spaces of our lives Love [Your City] Jacob Bloomberg,2020-02-07 What if the church in your city becomes known for its love God is on the move and doing a new thing around the globe Citywide movements and global urban mission are two merging trends turning the church inside out In cities worldwide the church is becoming known for its love like Jesus said How can you start such a movement in your city town or community Most urban mission textbooks are written from and for a Western context but this book is different Jacob Bloomberg shares the story of Love Hanoi a campaign turned movement that has been enjoying success since 2012 in the capital city of Vietnam In this book he provides the theological foundation of building the city and explains how urban mission concepts can be adapted for citywide movements in any cultural context Love Your City also features practical tools and helpful tips for students practitioners and mission leaders so that they too can start transforming their cities and making the church known for its love ArtMill Barbara Benish,2025-10-07 The story starts in totalitarian darkness Czechoslovakia before 1989 and gradually lays out a groundwork for how creativity within community can influence and change society All of this is rooted in the connection to the natural world be it local sustainable farming practices rural innovations or international policies with governmental bodies on the global level The book is a success story for a female artist the author who found a way to build a life in a rural posttotalitarian foreign country with virtually no income through her love of the place It is a testament to the resilience of the people of that small nation that was sacrificed in the tumultuous chess game of colonial superpowers dividing up Europe after the devastation of WWII It is a textbook protocol on how to instill civil society from the ground up so that democratic life can thrive This is a story that has been told in small pieces over the years in essays catalogues lectures and radio and television interviews but needed the deeper context of a fulllength book Living in the Neighborhood T. Aaron Smith,2013-09 Those called to incarnational urban poor ministry must learn to live in sustainable ways that can be maintained for the long haul Living in the Neighborhood equips incarnational ministers to live meaningfully and to transform their communities for the glory of God This book is a valuable resource for anyone involved in incarnational ministry among the urban poor and for those preparing to go Living in the Neighborhood T. Aaron Smith,2012-08-01 Living in the Neighborhood seeks to empower incarnational ministers among the urban poor by helping to equip them to remain long term among the urban poor Those called to urban poor ministry must learn to live in sustainable ways that can be maintained for a lifetime Jeremiah s letter to the exiles is examined showing how incarnational ministry is the combination of the theologies of location and engagement How incarnational ministers actually go about living meaningfully in an urban poor community is explored The reader is guided through the discernment process of choosing an approach to living among the urban poor In order to discern an approach one should have an awareness of self their specific ministry role and their community Incarnational ministers can engage a community in practical ways through love Stories from Asia and the United States tell how incarnational ministers are engaging their communities for transformation through intercession welcoming teenage moms into their home negotiating a truce between fighting gang members and other practical acts of love Parenting issues related to raising children among the urban poor is addressed The major parenting concerns of education and safety are examined as well as some of the traumatic experiences related to incarnational ministers Some of the ways incarnational ministers can actually harm their community is also reflected upon Some of the keys to sustainability are examined such as calling and the spiritual disciplines of Sabbaths retreats and daily devotions are reflected upon Living in the Neighborhood is a useful resource for anyone preparing for incarnational ministry among the urban poor as well as for those currently involved in incarnational ministry The Church as Movement JR Woodward,Dan White Jr.,2016-07-14 JR Woodward and Dan White Jr have trained church planters all over North America In this interactive field manual they help you and your team gain eight key competencies crucial for church planting so that you can create churches that flourish and launch their own sustainable missional and incarnational congregations Religion Index One ,1996 God So Loves the City Charles E. Van Engen,Jude Tiersma,2009-08-01 From the explosive contexts of Nairobi Mexico City Los Angeles and Madras burst fresh insights on the mission of the church for the city Jude Tiersma and Charles Van Engen worked closely with an international team of experienced urban practitioners to explore the most urgent issues facing those who minister in today s cities From each particular urban setting a team member contributed a story from ministry in the city Each story uniquely illustrates a different challenge of urban ministry in the face of injustice marginalization and urban structures This book brings you these stories then retells them in light of Scripture introducing new hope to each one From these stories emerge new ideas about the nature of cities and how to practice ministry in them The new methodology employed by Van Engen and Tiersma's team leads us in the first steps toward a theology of mission for the city God So Loves the City is a must for pastors seminary students missiologists congregation members and all who are concerned about urban ministry

Sidewalks in the Kingdom (The Christian Practice of Everyday Life) Eric O.

Jacobsen,2003-05-01 Christians often talk about claiming our cities for Christ and the need to address urban concerns But according to Eric Jacobsen this discussion has remained far too abstract Sidewalks in the Kingdom challenges Christians to gain an informed vision for the physical layout and structure of the city Jacobsen emphasizes the need to preserve the nourishing characteristics of traditional city life including shared public spaces thriving neighborhoods and a well supported local economy He explains how urban settings create unexpected and natural opportunities to initiate friendship and share faith in Christ Helpful features include a glossary a bibliography and a description of New Urbanism Pastors city dwellers and those interested in urban ministry and development will be encouraged by Sidewalks in the Kingdom

Why Cities

Matter Stephen T. Um,Justin Buzzard,2013-03-31 We live in a unique moment in history Right now more people live in urban centers than ever before This means that we have an unprecedented opportunity to influence the majority of the world through the church in the city Helping us to make the most of this moment urban pastors Justin Buzzard and Stephen Um lay out a compelling vision for cultural engagement and church planting in our world's cities If you're looking for motivation to maintain a commitment to the city or for guidance as you consider going all in this book provides a comprehensive analysis of urban life that informs, instructs, inspires, and answers questions including Why cities are so important What the Bible says about cities How to overcome common issues and develop a plan for living missionally in the city Instead of retreating from or taking from our cities here is a call to make the cities our home to take good care of them and to participate in God's kingdom building work in the urban centers of our world

A Heart for the Community John Dr. Fuder,Noel

Castellanos,2012-03-21 Islam gentrification AIDS and multiculturalism Where do we face these realities A few years ago it was in the city But today many city dwellers are moving to the suburbs either by choice or because of circumstances beyond their control And this shift is changing both the urban and suburban landscape With this shift in mind editors John Fuder and Noel Castellanos have gathered together a team of experts to help you minister effectively in both the urban and suburban context Divided into four sections Critical Issues Church Planting Models Ministering to Suburban Needs and Para Church Ministries A Heart for the Community is a rich resource designed to help you do ministry today

Urban Ministry Manuel

Ortiz,Harvie M. Conn,2025-06-06 No 3 in the Academy of Parish Clergy Top Ten Books of the Year The city presents serious challenges that cry out for answers poverty racism human exploitation and government corruption How can the church move ahead in the midst of these demands with the gospel of hope Here in one comprehensive volume Harvie Conn and Manuel Ortiz two noted scholars and proven practitioners of urban ministry address the vital work of the church in the city Their dual goal to understand the city and God's work in it. Through four great waves of development Conn and Ortiz trace the history of the city around the world. Then they tackle the critical issue of a biblical basis for urban mission. How does the Bible view the city? Are we closer to God in the country than the city? Does the Bible have an anti-urban bias? These questions are given a thorough analysis that unveils God's urban mandate as reflected in both Old and New Testaments. From this foundation the authors unpack the multifaceted nature of the city as place as process as center as power and as a place of change and stability. They move us beyond fragmented stereotypes to a new way of seeing that is holistic enough for a fully biblical ministry to develop. In addition Conn and Ortiz lay out what the social sciences have to offer urban mission including ethnographic and demographic studies and they focus on the particular issues and needs of urban leadership including a plan for developing and mentoring leaders while equipping the laity for ministry in the city. This is the essential text for bringing God's kingdom to the city through the people of God.

A Heart for the City John Fuder, 2005-11-01

Jesus is still the answer for urban ministries for ministries to the downtrodden poor and distressed in our cities. A Heart for the City is a rich compendium of valuable information on city ministries written by people who are currently ministering in the city including pastors, Christian school administrators and directors of homeless missions. It includes many illustrations and case studies that will prove valuable to any who work in the city or who want to understand how to more effectively help in the city. There are 29 chapters divided into the following seven parts: Context and History, Biblical and Philosophical Foundations, Education and Training, Local Church Models, Ethnic Communities, Disenfranchised Subcultures, Children and Youth. A Heart For the City is a unique treasure of encouragement for those serving in or those with a heart for the inner city. You will surely be blessed.

Discipling the City Roger S. Greenway, 2000-12-29

Seek the Peace of the City Eldin Villafañe, 1995

This volume extends a summons to today's churches to give primacy once again to urban ministry. Villafañe lays out a vision of a church that unlike the trend today refuses to retreat from the challenges of city life.

Urban Impact John L. Thompson, 2010-10-26

Helping the city pastor or missionary develop an effective ministry. Thompson elaborates on seven critical principles necessary for an effective urban ministry. Following this discussion the book turns to two of the leading challenges of great cities. Other chapters address urban discipleship as the most effective approach to promote life transformation, planting churches in the difficult urban environment and raising a family in the city from publisher description.

Models, Mentors, and Messages René Rochester, 2009-07-13

For far too long we've neglected the urban mission field. Many churches have moved to the outskirts of the city for various reasons and the urban landscape appears to be forgotten. Dr. René Rochester presents a vision for how communities can change this pattern and plant redemptive and sustainable urban ministries. Models, Mentors, and Messages takes a close look at the developmental stages of Jesus' life, focusing on how family, his heavenly Father, the Jewish community, and neighboring nations were used to shape his holy destiny. Through the example of Jesus' life you will learn how to draw on your own formative years to show urban teens how to live out God's call in their communities. The most authentic models are individuals who have wrestled through life's challenges and learned to trust God in difficult situations and so by empowering urban students today and showing them how to nurture one another in faith you can help create sustainable ministries in which each generation will model for the next how to follow Jesus. The first of its kind this book doesn't try to force old models on the urban context but rather teaches new ways to draw on Jesus' teachings to help an urban hip hop generation live for Jesus and for one another. For the City Matt Carter, Darrin Patrick, 2011-05-03. What makes a healthy church. Specifically what defines a successful church in heavily populated richly diverse areas. This book will explore what it means to be a church for the city God has called you to engage. Help you learn from past success stories as well as past mistakes in urban ministry. Guide you in developing a philosophy of ministry that can lead to restoration and renewal in your city. According to the United States Census Bureau over 80% of the population lives in urban areas. Churches in or near cities have to work hard to minister effectively to a diverse group of people welcoming those of different backgrounds engaging both the poor and marginalized as well as the wealthy and influential. Church planters Matt Carter and Darrin Patrick explain the biblical theological and historical foundations of ministry within the urban core and how to plant churches where the gospel is faithfully shared and brings substantial benefits to those living in the community. For the City relates the wisdom gleaned from years of serving their cities for the sake of God's kingdom. Carter and Patrick practically equip church leaders and Christians to look at their city as a mission field where individuals and churches can faithfully proclaim the gospel and live out the reality of a community changed and transformed by its message. Crossover City Andrew Davey, 2010-06-03. Is an urban based approach to mission still relevant in a networked global society. If so what is particular about the urban context for the heart of God's mission. How is that mission understood in terms of evangelism and proclamation sin and salvation the work of the sacraments and the Holy Spirit and challenge of Christ in the lives of his followers. Theological reflection case studies and new insights come together as practitioners theologians and urban clergy reflect on the presence of the Church in urban communities. Crossover City confronts the theological priorities of the Church as it attempts to hold the tensions between expectations of its partnership in social regeneration and welfare and its prophetic voice through its continued and transformative presence in marginalized communities. It challenges the way theology is often done in isolated factions that deny openness and collaboration which must underpin the transformative mission our urban areas cry out for. Critical reading for those in theological training and parish ministry seeking resources for a creative and radical witness in our increasingly urban world.
