Through Other Continents Through Other Continents:

Transcendental Resistance Johannes Voelz, 2010 A timely and engrossing critique of the New Americanists

The Age of Silver Ning Ma, 2016-11-24 The Age of Silver advances a horizontal method of comparative literature and applies this approach to analyze the multiple emergences of early realism and novelistic modernity in Eastern and Western cultural spheres from the sixteenth through the eighteenth centuries Naming this era of economic globalization the Age of Silver Ning Ma emphasizes the bullion flow from South America and Japan to China through international commerce and argues that the resultant transcontinental monetary and commercial co evolutions stimulated analogous socioeconomic shifts and emergent novelistic realisms The main texts addressed within include The Plum in the Golden Vase China Don Quixote Spain The Life of an Amorous Man Japan and Robinson Crusoe England These Eastern and Western narratives indicate from their own geographical vantage points commercial expansions stimulation of social mobility and larger processes of cultural destabilization Their realist tendencies are underlain with politically critical functions and connote heteroglossic national imaginaries This horizontal argument realigns novelistic modernity with a multipolar global context and reestablishes commensurabilities between Eastern and Western literary histories The Age of Silver challenges the unilateral equation between globalization and modernity with westernization and foregrounds a polycentric mode of global early modernity for pluralizing the genealogy of world literature and historical transcultural relations

Europe, A Political Profile Hans Slomp, 2011-09-26 Specially written for an American audience this accessible encyclopedic survey covers politics in every individual European nation and in the European Union The two volume Europe A Political Profile An American Companion to European Politics is the first encyclopedic survey of politics in Europe especially written for a wide American public including high school students The first volume places national developments and institutions in a Europe wide context and includes tables comparing European politics with U S politics The second volume discusses the individual European nations by regional group facilitating comparison of a country with neighboring nations All European countries are covered including Turkey Russia and the Caucasian republics of Georgia Armenia and Azerbaijan Each country profile includes an introduction to the land the people the economy and the culture as well as a timeline of historic highlights The nation s political system is discussed as are public policies and the major political parties Each entry also provides tables listing heads of state the composition of the legislative body and the political leaders

Excursions with Thoreau Edward F. Mooney, 2015-10-22 Excursions with Thoreau is a major new exploration of Thoreau s writing and thought that is philosophical yet sensitive to the literary and religious Edward F Mooney s excursions through passages from Walden Cape Cod and his late essay Walking reveal Thoreau as a miraculous writer artist and religious adept Of course Thoreau remains the familiar political activist and environmental philosopher but in these fifteen excursions we discover new terrain Among the notable themes that emerge are Thoreau s grappling with underlying affliction his pursuit of wonder as ameliorating affliction his use of the enigmatic image of a child of the mist his exalting sympathy with intelligence over plain knowledge and his preferring befitting reverie not argument as the way to be carried to better cleaner perceptions of reality Mooney's aim is bring alive Thoreau's moments of reverie and insight and to frame his philosophy as poetic and episodic rather than discursive and systematic The

Globalization of Netherlandish Art, 2024-12-02 Is there a special place for the Low Countries in art history's current debates on global mobility How should we conceive of the globalization of Netherlandish art in the early modern period and in what ways does the distinctively worldly orientation of the Netherlands in this period contribute to early modern visual culture This volume examines how artworks produced in the wake of European expansion art produced in the Netherlands in reaction to the world outside of Europe and art made outside of Europe in reaction to encounters with the Netherlands help us better understand the cultural impacts of globalization The Worlds of Langston Hughes Vera M.

Kutzinski, 2012-09-18 The poet Langston Hughes was a tireless world traveler and a prolific translator editor and marketer Translations of his own writings traveled even more widely than he did earning him adulation throughout Europe Asia and especially the Americas In The Worlds of Langston Hughes Vera Kutzinski contends that for writers who are part of the African diaspora translation is more than just a literary practice it is a fact of life and a way of thinking Focusing on Hughes's autobiographies translations of his poetry his own translations and the political lyrics that brought him to the attention of the infamous McCarthy Committee she shows that translating and being translated and often mistranslated are as vital to Hughes's own poetics as they are to understanding the historical network of cultural relations known as literary modernism As Kutzinski maps the trajectory of Hughes's writings across Europe and the Americas we see the remarkable extent to which the translations of his poetry were in conversation with the work of other modernist writers Kutzinski spotlights cities whose role as meeting places for modernists from all over the world has yet to be fully explored Madrid Havana Buenos Aires Mexico City and of course Harlem The result is a fresh look at Hughes not as a solitary author who wrote in a single language but as an international figure at the heart of a global intellectual and artistic formation Lost Intimacy in American
