Letters to the Editor

Mr. and Mrs. Bob DeLoe
Five Good News in America for six months. Now I have to go back and leave all the friends I made.

When I came I was alone, even my father and my mother were strangers, but now, after all this time I feel that I have been always part of the family. I remember it was hard to leave my family, my friends when I left Argentina, but I know I was going to see them again. And now I'm leaving without knowing if I may ever come back to see you and all the people that made me feel at home.

Thanks to you and your people for opening your hearts and letting me stay in your home.
