Tick... Tick... Tick... David Blum, 2005-10-11 An insider's view of the most successful show in the history of TV 60 Minutes The most popular TV show in America isn't American Idol and it's not Survivor Month in month out the most watched program in America is 60 Minutes drawing a staggering 25 million viewers in an average week For its entire 34 year history 60 Minutes was the brainchild and personal fiefdom of Don Hewitt the take no prisoners visionary who hustled the show into being and kept it afloat with a mixture of chutzpah tough talk scheming and journalistic savvy But now that Hewitt is 80 and grudgingly considering retirement the show's direction is increasingly up for grabs and the transition will surely be marked by some serious fireworks As author David Blum provides a fly on the wall perspective on the show's upheavals he'll also trace its past although the show has aired some 5 000 pieces and has made household names of Mike Wallace Ed Bradley Leslie Stahl and Morley Safer much of the backstage story the passionate pursuit of stories the behind the scenes wrangling and the stars' prima donnish behavior has gone untold With full access to the producers stars and executives Blum will give readers an unprecedented view of the personalities and events that have shaped 60 Minutes and a new perspective on how current events become news

That's the Way It Is Charles L. Ponce de Leon, 2016-09-09 Ever since Newton Minow taught us sophisticates to bemoan the descent of television into a vast wasteland the dyspeptic chorus of jeremiahs who insist that television news in particular has gone from gold to dross gets noisier and noisier Charles Ponce de Leon says here in effect that this is misleading if not simply fatuous He argues in this well paced lively readable book that TV news has changed in response to broader changes in the TV industry and American culture It is pointless to bewail its decline That's the Way It Is gives us the very first history of American television news spanning more than six decades from Camel News Caravan to Countdown with Keith Oberman and The Daily Show Starting in the latter 1940s television news featured a succession of broadcasters who became household names even presences Eric Sevareid Walter Cronkite David Brinkley Peter Jennings Brian Williams Katie Couric and with cable expansion people like Glenn Beck Jon Stewart and Bill O'Reilly But behind the scenes the parallel story is just as interesting involving executives producers and journalists who were responsible for the field's most important innovations Included with mainstream network news programs is an engaging treatment of news magazines like 60 Minutes and 20/20 as well as morning news shows like Today and Good Morning America Ponce de Leon gives ample attention to the establishment of cable networks CNN and the later competitors Fox News and MSNBC mixing in colorful anecdotes about the likes of Roger Ailes and Roone Arledge Frothy features and other kinds of entertainment have been part and parcel of TV news from the start viewer preferences have always played a role in the evolution of programming although the disintegration of a national culture since the 1970s means that most of us no longer follow the news as a civic obligation Throughout Ponce de Leon places his history in a broader cultural context emphasizing tensions between the public service mission of TV news and the quest for profitability and broad appeal
