Time Space And The Unknown Maasai Configurations Of Power And Providence:

Time, Space and the Unknown Paul Spencer, 2004-02-24 First Published in 2004 Uncertainty is an aspect of existence among the Maasai in East Africa They take ritual precautions against mystical misfortune especially at their ceremonial gatherings which exude displays of confidence and generate a sense of time space community and being Yet their performances are undermined by a concern for clandestine psychopaths who are thought to create havoc through sorcery Normally elders seek moral explanations for erratic encounters with misfortune viewing God as the Supreme and unknowable figure of Providence However sorcery lies beyond their collective wisdom and they look for guidance from their Prophet as a more powerful sorcerer to whom they are bound for protection This work examines the variation of this pattern associated with different profiles of social life and tension across the Maasai federation Snakes, People, and Spirits,

Volume One Robert Hazel, 2019-11-05 This two volume publication offers an in depth analysis of ophidian symbolism in Eastern Africa while setting the topic within its regional and historical context namely with regards to the rest of Africa ancient Egypt and Mesopotamia the Greek world ancient Palestine Arabia India and medieval and pre Christian Europe Through the ages most of those areas have connected with Eastern Africa in a broad sense where ophidian symbolism was as rampant and far reaching if not more so as anywhere else on the continent and perhaps in past civilisations Much as in the wider context snakes were held to be long lived closely related to holes caverns trees and water life and death and credited with a liking for milk Even though ophidian symbolism has always been developed out of the outstanding biological and ethological features of snakes the process of symbolisation which plays a crucial role in the elaboration of cultural systems and the shaping of human experience was inevitably at work This first volume deals with snakes as a zoological category snake symbolism as perceived by encyclopaedists and psychologists and ophidian symbolism as it occurred in ancient civilisations It explores the traditional African scene in general with a view to set the scene for a more proximate baseline for comparison The divide between animals and humans was porous and snakes had a more or less equal footing in both the animal realm and the spiritual world Key features of snake symbolism in traditional Eastern Africa are then examined in detail especially phantasmagorical snakes the rainbow serpent snake totems and snake related witches and ritual leaders among others In Eastern Africa the meanings attributed to snakes were multifaceted and paradoxical Overall the two volumes of this publication show that African snake symbolism broadly echoed the diverse representations of ancient civilisations The widely acknowledged assimilation of snakes to death and Evil is therefore unrepresentative both historically and culturally Leaders between Role Model and Idol Volker Kessler, Angelika Marsch, Hans-Georg Wünnch, The guiding question for this book is Should leaders become role models or idols or both or neither The theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer had a clear opinion on this If the leader tries to become the idol the led are looking for something the led always hope from their leader then the image of the leader shifts to one of a misleader Radio message 1 Feb 1933 This book presents interesting case studies from Africa America Europe spanning various disciplines and time periods It does not provide quick fix approaches but invites reflective practitioners and scholars alike to dig deeper It grew out of an inspiring leadership conference held in Budapest September 2024 Agricultural Intensification, Environmental Conservation, Conflict and Co-Existence at Lake Naivasha, Kenya, 2024-06-24 This interdisciplinary volume provides a comprehensive and rich analysis of the century long socio ecological transformation of Lake Naivasha Kenya Major globalised processes of agricultural intensification biodiversity conservation efforts and natural resource extraction have simultaneously manifested themselves in this one location These processes have roots in the colonial period and have intensified in the past decades after the establishment of the cut flower industry and the geothermal energy industry The chapters in this volume exemplify the multiple intertwined socio environmental crises that consequently have played out in Naivasha in the past and the present and that continue to shape its future Building a Peaceful Nation Paul Bjerk, 2015 A compelling account of the establishment of Tanzania's stable and ambitious government in the face of external threats and internal turmoil

Gendered Institutions and Women's Political Representation in Africa Diana Højlund Madsen, 2020-12-24 During the course of the past three decades efforts of democratisation and institutional reforms have characterised the African continent including demands for gender equality and women's political representation As a result some countries have introduced affirmative action measures either in the aftermath of conflicts or as part of broader constitutional reforms whereas others are falling behind this fast track to women's political representation Utilising a range of case studies spanning both the success cases and the less successful cases from different regions this work examines the uneven developments on the continent By mapping analysing and comparing women's political representation in different African contexts this book sheds light on the formal and informal institutions and the interplay between these that are influencing women's political representation and can explain the development on women's political representation across the continent and present perspectives on an African feminist institutionalism Journal of the Anthropological Society of Oxford Anthropological Society of Oxford, 2000 Sharing Pastures, Building Dialogues Mara Jill Goldman, 2006 Anthropogenic
