Creating Their Own Image Lisa E. Farrington, 2005 Creating Their Own Image marks the first comprehensive history of African American women artists from slavery to the present day Using an analysis of stereotypes of Africans and African Americans in western art and culture as a springboard Lisa E. Farrington here richly details hundreds of important works many of which deliberately challenge these same identity myths of the carnal Jezebel the asexual Mammy the imperious Matriarch in crafting a portrait of artistic creativity unprecedented in its scope and ambition In these lavishly illustrated pages some of which feature images never before published we learn of the efforts of Elizabeth Keckley fashion designer to Mary Todd Lincoln the acclaimed sculptor Edmonia Lewis internationally renowned for her neoclassical works in marble and the artist Nancy Elizabeth Prophet and her innovative teaching techniques We meet Laura Wheeler Waring who portrayed women of color as members of a socially elite class in stark contrast to the prevalent images of compliant maids impoverished malcontents and exotics others that proliferated in the inter war period We read of the painter Barbara Jones Hugu collaboration on the famed Wall of Respect even as we view a rare photograph of Hugu in the process of painting the mural Farrington expertly guides us through the fertile period of the Harlem Renaissance and the New Negro Movement which produced an entirely new crop of artists who consciously imbued their work with a social and political agenda and through the tumultuous explosive years of the civil rights movement Drawing on revealing interviews with numerous contemporary artists such as Betye Saar Faith Ringgold Nanette Carter Camille Billops Xenobia Bailey and many others the second half of Creating Their Own Image probes more recent stylistic developments such as abstraction conceptualism and post modernism never losing sight of the struggles and challenges that have consistently influenced this body of work Weaving together an expansive collection of artists styles and periods Farrington argues that for centuries African American women artists have created an alternative vision of how women of color can are and might be represented in American culture From utilitarian objects such as quilts and baskets to a wide array of fine arts Creating Their Own Image serves up compelling evidence of the fundamental human need to convey one s life one s emotions one s experiences on a canvas of one s own making Dancing at the Louvre Faith Ringgold,1998 Contemporary artist Faith Ringgold has adapted the tradition of the American slave quilt to create a world in which African Americans and women dominate where history is not only questioned but reinvented 102 illustrations 40 in color American Shame Myra Mendible,2016-03-29 Essays examining the role of shame as an American cultural practice and how public shaming enforces conformity and group coherence On any given day in America s news cycle stories and images of disgraced politicians and celebrities solicit our moral indignation their misdeeds fueling a lucrative economy of shame and scandal Shame is one of the most coercive painful and intriguing of human emotions Only in recent years has interest in shame extended beyond a focus on the subjective experience of this emotion and its psychological effects The essays collected here consider the role of shame as cultural practice and examine ways that public shaming practices enforce conformity and group coherence Addressing abortion mental illness suicide immigration and body image among other issues this volume calls attention to the ways shaming practices create and police social boundaries how shaming speech is endorsed judged or challenged by various groups and the distinct ways that shame is encoded and embodied in a nation that prides itself on individualism diversity and exceptionalism Examining shame through a prism of race sexuality ethnicity and gender these provocative essays offer a broader understanding of how America s discourse of shame helps to define its people as citizens spectators consumers and moral actors An eclectic anthology it offers the readers more than one argument and perspective which makes the volume itself lively and rich Ron Scapp coeditor of Fashion Statements On Style Appearance and Reality Stick to the Skin Celeste-Marie Bernier,2019-01-08 The first comparative history of African American and Black British artists artworks and art movements Stick to the Skin traces the lives and works of over fifty painters photographers sculptors and mixed media assemblage installation video and performance artists working in the United States and Britain from 1965 to 2015 The artists featured in this book cut to the heart of hidden
