Words and Music by
BARRY MANIN and CYNTHIA WEIL

Medium tempo (with a beat)

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It begins with a piano introduction in 4/4 time, marked 'Medium tempo (with a beat)'. The introduction consists of a series of eighth and sixteenth notes in the bass clef, while the treble clef is silent. The first vocal line starts with the lyrics 'In this dir - ty old part of the ci - ty' and continues with 'Where the sun re - fuse to shine...'. The piano accompaniment continues with a steady eighth-note pattern. The second vocal line begins with 'Peo - ple tell me there ain't... no use in try - ing'. The piano part features a more complex harmonic structure with chords and moving lines in both hands. The third vocal line starts with 'Now my girl you're so young and pret - ty' and ends with 'And one thing I know is true...'. The piano accompaniment provides a rhythmic and harmonic foundation for the vocal melody.

We Gotta Get Out of This Place Doug Bradley, Craig Werner, 2016-01-06 The diversity of voices and songs reminds us that the home front and the battlefield are always connected and that music and war are deeply intertwined Heather Marie Stur author of 21 Days to Baghdad For a Kentucky rifleman who spent his tour trudging through Vietnam's Central Highlands it was Nancy Sinatra's These Boots Are Made for Walkin' For a black marine distraught over the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr it was Aretha Franklin's Chain of Fools And for countless other Vietnam vets it was I Feel Like I'm Fixin' to Die or the song that gives this book its title In We Gotta Get Out of This Place Doug Bradley and Craig Werner place popular music at the heart of the American experience in Vietnam They explore how and why U.S. troops turned to music as a way of connecting to each other and the World back home and of coping with the complexities of the war they had been sent to fight They also demonstrate that music was important for every group of Vietnam veterans black and white Latino and Native American men and women officers and grunts whose personal reflections drive the book's narrative Many of the voices are those of ordinary soldiers airmen seamen and marines But there are also solo pieces by veterans whose writings have shaped our understanding of the war Karl Marlantes Alfredo Veá Yusef Komunyakaa Bill Ehrhart Arthur Flowers as well as songwriters and performers whose music influenced soldiers' lives including Eric Burdon James Brown Bruce Springsteen Country Joe McDonald and John Fogerty Together their testimony taps into memories individual and cultural that capture a central if often overlooked component of the American war in Vietnam

Songs of the Factory Marek Korczynski, 2015-02-06 In Songs of the Factory Marek Korczynski examines the role that popular music plays in workers' culture on the factory floor Reporting on his ethnographic fieldwork in a British factory that manufactures window blinds Korczynski shows how workers make often grueling assembly line work tolerable by permeating their workday with pop music on the radio The first ethnographic study of musical culture in an industrial workplace Songs of the Factory draws on socio-musicology cultural studies and sociology of work combining theoretical development methodological innovation and a vitality that brings the musical culture of the factory workers to life Music Korczynski argues allows workers both to fulfill their social roles in a regimented industrial environment and to express a sense of resistance to this social order The author highlights the extensive forms of informal collective resistance within this factory and argues that the musically informed culture played a key role in sustaining these collective acts of resistance As well as providing a rich picture of the musical culture and associated forms of resistance in the factory Korczynski also puts forward new theoretical concepts that have currency in other workplaces and in other rationalized spheres of society

The Lyre of Orpheus Christopher Partridge, 2014 The study of religion and popular culture is an increasingly significant area of scholarly inquiry Surprisingly however Christopher Partridge's The Lyre of Orpheus is the first general introduction to the subject of religion and popular music. His aim in this book is to introduce a range of theoretical and methodological perspectives to be used in the study of religion and popular music and popular music subcultures. He addresses a range of issues from postcolonialism to postmodernism from sex to drugs from violence to the demonic and from misogyny to misanthropy. Part One provides a general overview of the history of popular music scholarship and the key approaches that have been taken. Part Two looks at approaches from the perspectives of theology and religious studies examining key themes relating to particular genres and subcultures. Part Three narrows the focus and examines key artists and bands mentioned in Part Two including Elvis, Bob Dylan, Madonna and Björk. Written to be accessible to the undergraduate, The Lyre of Orpheus will also appeal to general readers interested in the role of religion in our culture. Born in Brooklyn-- Raised in the Cav! John E. Flanagan, 2002-02

Here's about the book. Twenty one years after leaving Vietnam for the first time, the author attends a reunion of former pilots who flew helicopters in Vietnam. Reuniting with his classmates and some of his fellow pilots he flew with in Vietnam brings back a rush of memories and stories of times past. The following years reunions build on the first as more and more of the pilots he served with are reunited. The reunions stir memories and deeds of times past are recounted in a steady stream of war stories. He soon realizes that he doesn't want these stories, these war stories lost and decides to write them down before he forgets the details. As the stories unfold more memories come back and he records them too. His intent was not to document the history of the US involvement in the Vietnam War nor be a definitive history of the famous B Troop, 1st Squadron, 9th US Cavalry Regiment. His intent was to record his personal memory of the events some 30 plus years ago from his perspective. He talks about growing up in Brooklyn living in his grandmother's house on 40th Street, his gang of friends from Saint Michael's Church and of the events that led to his decision to volunteer for the draft. Tracing the draft process he tells of narrowly avoiding being drafted in the Marine Corps. He continues to tell the story of his journey through the army's classification and assignment system that results with him being selected for helicopter pilot training. The life of a warrant officer candidate presented a number of challenges that needed to be overcome if his plan to beat the army system was to be realized. He tells of some of the more interesting incidents in his flight training and preparation for combat. Things changed after earning his wings and arriving in Vietnam. Somewhere along the line the reality of the situation presents itself and John volunteers for the famous reconnaissance squadron of the 1st Cavalry Division. The 1st of the 9th was known for its ferocity in combat and its high casualty rate especially among flight crews. History records that this single unit was responsible for a large percentage of the entire division's enemy kills. His description of some of the sights and sounds of life in B Troop will surely remind other veterans of their time in Vietnam. He will certainly stir the memories of others that served in the air cavalry and perhaps even others who were supported by them. The stories are real. The people are real. John Flanagan writes them as he would tell them to you in person. Sometimes funny, sometimes serious, sometimes rambling.

sometimes clearly but always truthfully and as he remembers them The result of these writings are Born in Brooklyn Raised in the Cav The Aviation Museum at Fort Rucker Alabama the 1st Cavalry Museum at Fort Hood Texas keeps this book in stock A reviewer said I learned to better appreciate the Army helo pilot January 30 2004 Reviewer E M from san diego ca USA Well it certainly is a long journey from the dreary streets of Brooklyn to the miserable and dangerous fields and skies of Viet Nam at war Major Flanagan has travelled this route and shares his adventure with the reader He is a real American hero as are all his brethren flying warrant officers Yet he tells his story without bravado or arrogance He is simply telling the story of his experience in Viet Nam as a young 19 year old plucked from the streets of Brooklyn and injected into the chaos of war He writes of his training as well as his wartime experiences Often his enemy was the weather as much as the NVA on the ground Major Flanagan writes in a simple readable style without pretension his memories are direct straightforward and sprinkled with a dash of Irish wit and humor If one wants to know the life of an Army helo pilot on the front lines of the Viet Nam war this is a book to read Beyond the daily life of the helo pilot we also learn
