Delivery As Dispossession Zachary Levenson, 2022 A sweeping historical and political analysis with detailed ethnographic fieldwork of the politics of everyday life in postcolonial Africa In post apartheid South Africa nearly a fifth of the urban population lives in shacks Unable to wait any longer for government housing people occupy land typically seeking to fly under the state's radar Yet in most cases occupiers wind up in dialogue with the state In Delivery as Dispossession Zachary Levenson follows this journey from avoidance to incorporation explaining how the post apartheid Constitution shifts squatters struggles onto the judicial register Providing a comparative ethnographic account of two land occupations in Cape Town and highlighting occupiers struggles Levenson further demonstrates why it is that housing officials seek the eviction of all new occupations they view these unsanctioned settlements as a threat to the order they believe is required for delivery Yet in evicting occupiers he argues they reproduce the problem anew with subsequent rounds of land occupation as the inevitable consequence Offering a unique framework for thinking about local states this book proposes a novel theory of the state that will change the way ethnographers think about politics
