We the Black Jews Yosef Ben-Jochannan, 1993 Dr Ben destroys the myth of a white Jewish race and the bigotry that has denied the existence of an African Jewish culture He establishes the legitimacy of contemporary Black Jewish culture in Africa and the diaspora and predates its origin before ancient Nile Valley civilizations Small Press Review, 1993

The Dispersion Stéphane Dufoix, 2016-11-28 Winner of the 2017 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Award In The Dispersion St phane Dufoix skillfully traces how the word diaspora first coined in the third century BCE has over the past three decades developed into a contemporary concept often considered to be ideally suited to grasping the complexities of our current world Spanning two millennia from the Septuagint to the emergence of Zionism from early Christianity to the Moravians from slavery to the defence of the Black cause from its first scholarly uses to academic ubiquity from the early negative connotations of the term to its contemporary apotheosis St phane Dufoix explores the historical socio semantics of a word that perhaps paradoxically has entered the vernacular while remaining poorly understood If I Can Cook, You Know God Can Ntozake Shange, 1998

The Colors of Jews Melanie Kaye/Kantrowitz, 2007-06-14 Exposes and challenges the common assumptions about whom and what Jews are by presenting in their own voices Jews of color from the Iberian Peninsula Asia Africa and India Kaye Kantrowitz delves into the largely uncharted territory of Jews of color and argues that Jews are an increasingly multiracial people From publisher description John Henrik Clarke and the Power of Africana History Ahati N. Franklin, 1998 In recent scholarship academics have focused primarily on areas of conflict between Blacks and Jews yet in the long struggle to bring social justice to American society these two groups have often worked as allies in both the organized labor and the civil rights movements Demonstrating the complexity of the relationship of Blacks and Jews in America African Americans and Jews in the Twentieth Century examines the competition and solidarity that have characterized Black Jewish interactions over the past century These essays provide an intellectual foundation for cooperative efforts to improve social justice in our society and are an invaluable resource for the study of race relations in twentieth century America Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved    Library Tracts , 1894

Landing, 2002 Throughout most black societies today there are Jews who are not accepted by the worldwide community of Rabbinic Jews They are known as Black Jews and the movement they represent is known as Black Judaism Originating in the post Civil War southern states the early leaders of this movement were motivated by oppression and racism to migrate north They came into contact with Rabbinic Jews and the Judaism they represented but Black Jews and Black Judaism were rejected Black Judaism continued to spread and reached the continent of Africa where it became an integral part of the Independent Black Church Movement and an active component of the various struggles for independence From New York it spread to Latin America especially the West Indies and is known there in its most varied form as Rastafarianism During the turbulent days of the Civil Rights era an uneasy alliance developed between some Black Jews and Rabbinic Jews but again rejection soon followed Black Judaism has never been a large movement in numbers of adherents but its influence far exceeds its numbers making it recognizable as Landing shows in this book as one of the most important social movements in African American history There is limited existing literature on the topic and Landing s book offers a much needed analysis of this little known religious phenomenon The work includes an extensive annotated bibliography and photographic supplement Recommended for academic and research libraries Association of Jewish Libraries September October 2004

Challenging the Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) Movement Ronnie Fraser, Lola Fraser, 2023-02-13 Challenging the Boycott Divestment and Sanctions BDS Movement focuses on the efforts to oppose antisemitism the academic boycott and the BDS movement The State of Israel has faced many threats most of them military since it was established in 1948 but the threat posed by the NGO forum at the United Nations World Conference against Racism in Durban South Africa in August 2001 was different The forum unleashed the new antisemitism which targeted the State of Israel as well as a non violent civil society based campaign based on the South African anti apartheid campaign of the 1980s which was to form the basis of the international Boycott Divestment and Sanctions BDS movement directed at the State of Israel. Featuring case studies from the United States, Great Britain, Israel and South Africa each chapter of this wide ranging volume discusses examples of opposition to the divisive BDS campaign and the proposed academic boycott of Israel over the last two decades including the fight for formal recognition of the new antisemitism by governments and international bodies and the use of a variety of legal measures. The rise of antisemitism within academia and wider society is also examined. This book will be vital reading for students, scholars and activists with an interest in social movements, Israel and Middle East politics and history.
