We Want To Believe Faith And Gospel In The X :

We Want to Believe Amy M. Donaldson,2011-04-14 From the first episode to the latest feature film two main symbols provide the driving force for the iconic television series The X Files Fox Mulder s I Want to Believe poster and Dana Scully s cross necklace Mulder s poster may feature a flying saucer but the phrase I want to believe refers to more than simply the quest for the truth about aliens The search for extraterrestrial life the truth that is out there is a metaphor for the search for God The desire to believe in something greater than ourselves is part of human nature we want to believe Scully s cross represents this desire to believe as well as the internal struggle between faith and what we can see and prove The X Files depicts this struggle by posing questions and exploring possible answers both natural and supernatural Why would God let the innocent suffer Can God forgive even the most heinous criminal What if God is giving us signs to point the way to the truth but we re not paying attention These are some of the questions raised by The X Files In the spirit of the show this book uses the symbols and images presented throughout the series to pose such questions and explore some of the answers particularly in the Christian tradition With a focus on key themes of the series faith hope love and truth along the way this book journeys from the desire to believe to the message of the cross

Taylor,2016-06-14 Discover the daring faith you are called to live out Randy Harris and Greg Taylor lead you through the pages of the Gospel of John to inspire daring faith in Jesus The Gospel of John was written so people would believe the unbelievable This unbelievable story John tells is that God became man and lived among us These claims got Jesus killed And ever since people who believe the claim still lose their lives If you believe that Jesus is truly God you believe the most daring idea of all time Daring faith will cost your life But along with the risk comes the great reward of becoming children of God Are you ready for daring faith
