Elpel,2010 The house of your Dreams does not have to be expensive The key is all in the planning How much a house costs how it looks how comfortable it is how energy efficient it is all these things occur on paper before you pick up even one tool A little extra time in the planning process can save you tens of thousands of dollars in construction and maintenance That is time well spent Living Homes takes you through the planning process to design an energy and resource efficient home that won t break the bank Then from the footings on up to the roof author Thomas J Elpel guides you through the nuts and bolts of construction for slipform stone masonry tilt up stone walls log home construction building with strawbales making your own terra tile floors windows and doors solar water systems masonry heaters framing plumbing greywater septic systems swamp filters concrete fly ash countertops painting and more Living Homes was completely re organized and revised for the new sixth edition based on five additional years of building experience with low cost high efficiency construction methods Get the latest ideas on how to build a high performance house that will stand the test of time The sixth edition includes fifteen pages of new material covering the latest stone masonry tips plus revised and expanded tips and techniques throughout the book The House with Open Doors Yvonne M Wilbraham,2025-11-27 I was born in a country that exiled my family grew up searching for home across four continents and returned to discover that belonging is not about where you are from It is about understanding where you have been The house with open doors in Jakarta is gone now but I carry it with me the jasmine scent the humid air the feeling of belonging before I understood what it meant to lose it I was five years old when Indonesian independence forced my family into exile one suitcase each my mother saying goodbye to her four sisters both of my parents silent with the trauma of of Japanese

POW CAMPS they had never spoken about We spent five years in a Dutch refugee camp where my father saved my legs after I dropped boiling water on them where the cold water seeped into my bones where we learned that survival sometimes means heating water in pots and sharing bathrooms with strangers When Australia rejected us accepting my Dutch father but not his Indonesian family America became our salvation the Presbyterian Church sponsored us to Kadoka South Dakota where I rode horses to school where my mother fell into a puddle of pig mud in her Sunday best and my father accidentally feeding the neighbor s cows We were city folks trying to be country people Indonesians trying to be Dutch trying to be American displaced people searching for solid ground But the real miracle came thirty two years later in Bali when a hotel worker said let me help you find them and through a series of connections so unlikely an attorney in Ambon stood up and said She is my mother in law and suddenly my mother s thirty two years of grief had an ending a reunion with Tante Jule Tante Greta Tante Coba and Tante Jenny that healed something I did not know could be healed This memoir spans four countries four decades and the distance between exile and homecoming It is about driving an Alfa Romeo through Tuscany managing 250 difficult passengers on a 22 day Mediterranean cruise falling in love with a New Zealand cyclist who remembered exactly how long he had waited to call me and learning that displacement does not have to destroy you it can teach you that home is portable that forgiveness is possible even between a Dutch POW survivor and his Japanese neighbor and that the doors we thought closed forever can open again if we are brave enough to keep searching John Hunter, D.D.
