Mapping British Women Writers' Urban Imaginaries Arina Cirstea,2016-01-13 This study provides an alternative to the postmodern tradition of writing about the city by exploring spatialized constructions of gender and spiritual identity through an integrative framework based on insights from Bachelard's topoanalysis, psychogeography, feminist cultural theory, and comparative literature and religion. Maria Campbell Helen Hoy, Dylan A.T. Miner,2012-01-01 This essay collection gathers together writings on the works of Maria Campbell, feminist activist, visionary artist, mother, grandmother, and M-tis elder. The book talks truthfully of Maria's journey as a writer, how her writing was infected with her experiences with marginalization and discrimination, and how she emerged on the other side having affirmed her identity. Real Life Writings in American Literary Journalism: a Narratological Study Gurpreet Kaur,2015-07-24 This referential collection of essays is an important guide to the emergence and development of literary journalism through the centuries. The book begins with the defining of genres, literature, and journalism, which blur the lines between them. It also gives an insight into the theories of narratology. Some practitioners included in this book are great American writers like John Hersey, Truman Capote, Norman Mailer, and Don DeLillo. These literary journalists bring to life both major as well as trivial issues of the society. New journalists coalesce all the fictional techniques with the journalistic methods to present a unique and sophisticated style which requires extensive research and even more careful reporting than done in the typical news articles. The book closes with the concluding thoughts followed by a list of works cited. Confronting Animal Exploitation Kim Socha, Sarah Jane Blum,2013-02-14 As animal exploitation increases, animal liberation issues are of growing concern, as seen through the rise of veganism, academic disciplines devoted to animal issues, and mainstream critiques of factory farms. Yet as the dialogues, debates, and books continue to grow, the voices of street-level activists, not academics, journalists, or vegan chefs, are rarely heard. This volume broadens animal liberation dialogues by offering the arguments, challenges, inspiration, and narratives of grassroots activists. The essays show what animal advocacy looks like from a collective of individuals living in and around Minnesota's Twin Cities; the essayists, however, write of issues both personal and political that resound on a global scale. This collection provides a platform for rank-and-file activists to explain why and how they dedicate their time and what is being done for animals on a local level that can translate to global efforts to end animal exploitation. Critical Essays on E.B.
