Incumbent Wins Governorship State Democrats Make Massive Gains

By the ASSOCIATED PRESS

Texas voters elected Gov. Dolph Briscoe to a second term in office Tuesday for a four-year term with the voters' Democratic vote overwhelmingly winning a second victory.

Ballot Democrats also elected a Republican to the U.S. House delegation with the GOP's Rep. Bill Hall of Dallas falling to the Democrat Jack Hightower.

The job of another U.S. House Republican, Rep. Michael D. Griffin, was also in jeopardy. Griffin, who is running for re-election, was defeated by Democrat Jack Hightower.

At a late hour, with vote counts still breaking in Houston, voting for a popular local candidate, Rep. Bill Archer in the 10th District (Harris), was also in jeopardy.

The GOP heavily favored a fight for all state offices except the state courts in another effort to make Texas a general election state. But it failed to gain support for a popular gubernatorial candidate in the non-presidential year.

The breakdown of the Democratic lead for voters' choice was shown by Briscoe's lead of more than 60 per cent over Republican John G. Brown, who lost to Briscoe.

Two days ago Briscoe won over Republican Mark Connor by only a little more than 50 per cent of the vote. That was the year Republican presidential candidate Richard Nixon was elected.

The night newspapers also gave Briscoe healthy odds of winning a second term as Governor for the longer or shorter term.

Jones Sees No End To Faulty Drainage

Although studies of Denton's drainage problems are under way, there is no end in sight for the drainage problems in Denton, says County Development Director, Jack Jones.

Jones said that the study being conducted by Jones and Nichols, a consulting firm based in Fort Worth, should be completed by the time of the year that the city has no plans to begin work on the drainage problem.

Jones, who attributed the problem to poor city planning, said that ultimately the city will have to pay for the drainage problem. "We will never totally take care of the problem," he said.
