Wegbereidsters Elizabeth Fry Florence Nightingale Josephine Butler Priscilla Bright McLaren:

Sex, Gender, and Religion Diana Neal, Josephine Elizabeth Grey Butler, 2006 Original Scholarly Monograph Who's Afraid of Femininity?, 2023-10-16 Rosa Manus \(1881-1942\) Myriam Everard, Francisca de Haan, 2016-11-01 Rosa Manus 1881-1942 uncovers the life of Dutch feminist and peace activist Rosa Manus co-founder of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom vice president of the International Alliance of Women and founding president of the International Archives for the Women's Movement IAV in Amsterdam revealing its rootedness in Manus's radical secular Jewishness. Because the Nazis looted the IAV in 1940 including Manus's large personal archive and subsequently arrested and murdered her in 1942, Rosa Manus has been almost unknown to later generations. This collective biography offers essays based on new and in-depth research on pictures and documents from her archives returned to Amsterdam in 2003 as well as other primary sources. It thus restores Manus to the history from which the Nazis attempted to erase her. Contributors include Margot Badran, Mineke Bosch, Ellen Carol DuBois, Myriam Everard, Karen Garner, Francisca de Haan, Dagmar Wernitznig, and Annika Wilmers. The volume touches on all of the important themes of that history: the centrality of peace activism, the impact of the world wars and the rise of fascism, the tensions over imperialism and nationalist resistance in colonized countries, the importance of resources to the persistence of the movement, the vital glue of intimate relationships, and brings to the fore additional ones including the role of Jewish women, the centrality of Dutch feminists in transnational feminism, and the struggle over preserving the history of the movement. Leila J. Rupp, University of California Santa Barbara, in Women's History Review 2018 Doing Gender in Media, Art and Culture Rosemarie Buikema, Liedeke Plate, Kathrin Thiele, 2009-06-02. Doing Gender in Media Art and Culture is an introductory text for students specializing in gender studies. The truly interdisciplinary and intergenerational approach bridges the gap between humanities and the social sciences and it showcases the academic and social context in which gender studies has evolved. Complex contemporary phenomena such as globalisation, neo-liberalism and fundamentalism are addressed that stir up new questions relevant to the study of culture. This vibrant and wide-ranging collection of essays is essential reading for anyone in need of an accessible but sophisticated guide to the very latest issues and concepts within gender studies. Doing Gender in Media Art and Culture is an indispensable introduction to third wave feminism and contemporary gender studies. It is international in scope, multidisciplinary in method and transmedial in coverage. It shows how far feminist theory has come since Simone de Beauvoir's Second Sex and marks out clearly how much still needs to be done. Hayden White, Professor of Historical Studies Emeritus, University of California and Professor of Comparative Literature, Stanford University, US Remembering Social Movements Stefan Berger, Sean Scalmer, Christian Wicke, 2021-05-12. Remembering Social Movements offers a comparative historical examination of the relations between social movements and collective memory. A detailed historiographical and theoretical review of the field introduces the reader to five key concepts to help guide analysis of repertoires of contention, historical events, and generations.

collective identities and emotions The book examines how social movements act to shape public memory as well as how memory plays an important role within social movements through 15 historical case studies spanning labour feminist peace anti nuclear and urban movements as well as specific examples of memory activism from the 19th century to the 21st century These include transnational and explicitly comparative case studies in addition to cases rooted in German Australian Indian and American history ensuring that the reader gains a real insight into the remembrance of social activism across the globe and in different contexts The book concludes with an epilogue from a prominent Memory Studies scholar Bringing together the previously disparate fields of Memory Studies and Social Movement Studies this book systematically scrutinises the two way relationship between memory and activism and uses case studies to ground students while offering analytical tools for the reader
