Gerber, Charlotte M. Wright, 2011-04-15 Readers everywhere fell for Elizabeth Corey the irrepressible independent and fearless Bachelor Bess whose letters home to Iowa gave us a firsthand account of her adventures on a South Dakota homestead from 1909 to 1919 Now through the letters she wrote home between 1904 and 1908 readers can make the acquaintance of a younger Bess facing the realities of life in an Iowa country school system with energy enthusiasm and ambition Sixteen year old Bess wrote her early letters when she was away from the family farm trying to complete the ninth grade so she could become a teacher That schooling was cut short in 1905 when her father died and she returned home to help her mother Later that year she received a provisional certificate allowing her to teach which she did from 1905 to 1909 in a succession of rural schools across Shelby and Cass counties in Iowa Initially a reluctant teacher she had an infinite capacity for productive work that propelled her toward success in the classroom A determinedly lighthearted attitude toward life a talent for making congenial friends and for making herself at home as she boarded with one family after another a relentless devotion to her own family and a drive to communicate all combine to animate her letters home Always colorful and colloquial unusually detailed and frank Bess s letters are authentic documents of a discrete American time and place Full of puns hyperbole drama and above all else honesty and authenticity the eighty three letters describe barefooted pupils cantankerous and cooperative parents and school board members classroom activities and school picnics against a frugal background of early twentieth century chores social occasions party lines for telephones chautauquas church suppers and revivals new ribbons for second hand clothes and buggy and train rides all seen through the eyes of this talented teenage farm girl not much older than some of her students Of notable value is the light Bess casts upon the teaching profession as it was practiced in isolated midwestern areas at the moment when our nation determined that come what may every American child was going to have access to a basic grammar school education Beyond the pleasure of listening to a straight talker who pulls no punches one who expects to receive some of the praise most of the work and all of the cussing in return for her efforts Bess s letters create a veritable concordance of teaching in a one room
