---

1. Where is Parvana at the opening of the book? What is she doing?

She is at the Kabul market helping her dad sell items for their family.

2. How old is Parvana?

She is 11 years old.

3. Why is Parvana "one of the lucky ones" (9)? What does she mean by that?

She can read. Both of her parents are educated. They think it's important for all to get an education.

4. What was Parvana's initial reaction to the Taliban coming to Afghanistan? Why? How has her mind changed since then?

At first she was almost happy that the Taliban had taken over the government. "When [the Taliban] first took over the capital city of Kabul and forbade girls to go to school, Parvana wasn't terribly unhappy. She had a test coming up in arithmetic that she hadn't prepared for, and she was in trouble for talking in class again" (11). Parvana later wished she could go to school.

5. Briefly describe Parvana's homes before and after the Taliban. What happened?

Before the Taliban, Parvana's family had a large home. When the bombs started falling, Parvana's family homes were bombed and they had to find new homes. Each home got smaller as they became poorer and poorer.

6. What did Parvana's father end up selling because the offer was too good?

Parvana's father sold his false leg because somebody offered him a great deal of money for it.

7. How does Parvana's sister remember Kabul? How does Parvana know Kabul? Describe each and provide examples from the book.

Parvana's sister remembers Kabul as a place with whole sidewalks, traffic lights that worked, "evening trips to restaurants and cinemas, browsing in fine shops for clothes and books" (16).
