Stunning And Other Plays:

Stunning and Other Plays David Adjmi, 2011-11-22 Nearly everything about David Adjmi's Stunning has an original ring to it from the setting to the brassy bleat of the dialogue. Time Out New York. This volume of distinctive work includes Stunning set in an insular Syrian Jewish community where a teenage bride's world is disrupted by her intellectual African American housekeeper Evildoers about the collapse of two privileged couples and Elective Affinities a post 9/11 monologue. David Adjmi's work has been produced at Lincoln Center Theatre, Yale Repertory Theatre, Woolly Mammoth and the Royal Court in London. He has received numerous commissions and is the recipient of a 2009 Kesselring Fellowship and a Bush Artist Fellowship.

American Dramatists in the 21st Century Christopher Bigsby, 2023-02-23 In American Dramatists in the 21st Century Opening Doors Christopher Bigsby examines the careers of seven award-winning playwrights: David Adjmi, Julia Cho, Jackie Sibblies Drury, Will Eno, Martyna Majok, Dominique Morisseau, and Anna Ziegler. In addition to covering all their plays including several as yet unpublished, he notes their critical reception while drawing on their own commentary on their approach to writing and the business of developing a career. The writers studied come from a diverse range of racial, religious, and immigrant backgrounds. Five of the seven are women. Together they open doors on a changing theatre and a changing America as ever concerned with identity both personal and national. This is the third in a series of books which together have explored the work of twenty-four American playwrights who have emerged in the current century.

The Complete Aeschylus : Volume II: Persians and Other Plays Aeschylus, Peter Burian. Professor of Classical and Comparative Literature and Theater Studies, Duke University, Chapel Hill. Alan Shapiro, Distinguished Professor of English and Creative Writing, University of North Carolina, 2009-02-17. Based on the conviction that only translators who write poetry themselves can properly re-create the celebrated and timeless tragedies of Aeschylus, Sophocles, and Euripides, the Greek Tragedy in New Translations series offers new translations that go beyond the literal meaning of the Greek in order to evoke the poetry of the originals. The volume brings together four major works by one of the great classical dramatists: Prometheus Bound translated by James Scully and C. John Herrington, a haunting depiction of the most famous of Olympian punishments; The Suppliants translated by Peter Burian, an extraordinary drama of flight and rescue arising from women's resistance to marriage; Persians translated by Janet Lembke and C. John Herrington, a masterful telling of the Persian Wars from the view of the defeated; and Seven Against Thebes translated by Anthony Hecht and Helen Bacon, a richly symbolic play about the feuding sons of Oedipus. These four tragedies were originally available as single volumes. This new volume retains the informative introductions and explanatory notes of the original editions and adds a single combined glossary and Greek line numbers.

Beautiful Señoritas & Other Plays Dolores Prida, 1991. Savings, a musical comedy about gentrification.

The Sacrament and Other Plays of Forbidden Love Hugo Claus, 2007-10. Hugo Claus, generally recognized as the greatest living writer in the Dutch language, became famous in the theater for several early works of particular force and daring. This volume includes three of those remarkable early plays Bride in the Morning, Sugar and The Sacrament. All three plays boast unforgettable characters trapped in a world of oppressive social mores. The central figures are all subject to sexual and creative impulses towards objects of forbidden love that bring disapproval and censure crashing in on them subsequently bringing about their own ruin.

The Wild Woman and Other Plays Felix Mitterer, 1995. This second volume of Felix Mitterer's plays in English translation offers further evidence of this dramatist's powerful artistry. A mythological Wild Woman changes the lives of five wood cutters exposing their loneliness and desperation. Home reiterates the dictum that you can't go home again especially where prejudice, brutality and hatred reside. An historical drama based on actual court records Children of the Devil depicts institutional superstition and cruelty as perpetuated upon the most vulnerable members of society its children. One Everyman is a modern version of the traditional medieval morality play complete with a Devil from Wall Street while the Biblical analogy Abraham concerns the scourge of AIDS but even more the love between a father and his son. The Austrian playwright Felix Mitterer born in 1948 in the Tyrol is one of today's leading European dramatists. His two four part television series Piefke Saga and Verkaufte Heimat were seen by millions of viewers in the German speaking countries.

American Communities: Between the Popular and the Political Lukas Etter, Julia Straub, 2017-12-04. Given the political relevance of the topic of community and the apparent volatility of its meanings it is necessary to take time and create spaces for contemplation. How can theories of community be usefully applied to various forms of cultural production? How do notions of communitas affect representations as well as critiques of society and social developments? Based on a selection of papers given at the biennial conference of the Swiss Association for North American Studies in late 2016 this collection approaches discourses on literary texts and other cultural products from such angles as age studies, popular seriality, sustainability and ecocriticism. While focused on community in contemporary American Studies the articles in this collection also take into account some of the developments and issues surrounding community at a moment of heightened sensitivity towards this topic beyond academia.
