Following the first comprehensive transdisciplinary dialogue on humans in outer space which resulted in Humans in Outer Space Interdisciplinary Odysseys the European Science Foundation ESF the European Space Agency ESA and the European Space Policy Institute ESPI have continued and deepened this transdisciplinary dialogue which can now be found in Humans in Outer Space Interdisciplinary Perspectives Going further than regarding humans as better than robot tools for exploration it investigates the human quest for odysseys beyond Earth s atmosphere and reflects on arising issues related to Europe s role among the States conducting human exploration It provides perspectives related to governance management of space exploration space settlements the role of astronauts in the future as well as related to the encounter of extraterrestrial life

Forms of Individuality Elijah Jordan,1927      English Mechanic and Mirror of Science ,1908      Extraterrestrials in the Catholic Imagination Jennifer Rosato,Alan Vincelette,2021-02-10 What do scientists know about the possibility of life outside our solar system How does Catholic science ction imagine such worlds What are the implications for Catholic thought This collection brings together leading scientists philosophers theologians and science fiction authors in the Catholic tradition to examine these issues In the first section Christian scientists detail the latest scientific findings regarding the possibility of life on exoplanets The second part brings together leading Catholic science fiction authors who describe how alien life forms have been prevalent in the Catholic imagination from the Middle Ages right up to the present day In the final section Catholic philosophers and theologians examine the implications of discovering intelligent life elsewhere in the universe Rather than worrying that the discovery of intelligent extraterrestrials might threaten the dignity of humans or their existence the contributors here maintain that such creatures should be welcomed as fellow creatures of God and potential subjects of divine salvation
