The Subscription Boom Adam Levinter, 2019-10-08 In this clear and informed guide to the business model that's set to dominate twenty first century commerce Adam Levinter makes a compelling case that the phenomenal success of companies like Amazon Netflix Spotify and Salesforce wouldn't be possible without the foundation they all have in common subscription A surge of subscription boxes in 2012 earned buzz for offering everything from razors to meal kits to underwear since then the model has proven to be adaptable profitable and resilient even as many traditional retailers struggle to stay relevant in the digital economy Levinter takes a close look at the leaders of the subscription economy to pinpoint the essential elements of the model and prove that while the basic concept may be as old as magazines the ubiquity of the internet is enabling a new way for businesses to scale and succeed The Subscription Boom shows that the appeal to both customers and businesses makes subscription a smart play for virtually any business brand loyalty from its streamers However one segment that Spotify has not tapped into an area that its competitors already dominate is the voice assist speaker system market Reports have shown that Spotify is looking to add voice assist capabilities to its platform and in turn considering the development of a proprietary smart speaker device By 2017 the voice assist speaker market had become a global phenomenon valued at USD 4 4 billion and is projected to reach USD 23 3 billion by 2025 Spotify has been focused on maintaining its lead in music streaming but now smart speaker manufacturing companies will be able to disintermediate Spotify as a non essential application breaking its connection to customers But with the current success of Spotify s music streaming platform and its competitors focused on the smart speaker segment that Spotify has no control over Spotify must decide whether or not to follow the first movers and enter the voice assist speaker market
