Revised and updated throughout the second edition of this innovative textbook combines clear chronological progression with thematically focused chapters divided into six parts as follows: PART 1 EMERGENCE Human origins to 500 CE; PART 2 ORDER 1 CE to 500 CE; PART 3 CONNECTIONS 500 to 1600 CE; PART 4 BRIDGING WORLDS 1300 to 1800 CE; PART 5 TRANSFORMING LIVES 1500 to 1900; PART 6 FORGING A GLOBAL COMMUNITY 1800 to Present. The expanded new edition features an impressive full-color design with a host of illustrations, maps, and primary source excerpts integrated throughout. Chapter-opening timelines supply context for the material ahead, while end-of-chapter questions and annotated additional resources provide students with the tools for independent study. Each chapter and part boasts introductory and summary essays that guide the reader in comprehending the relevant theme. In addition, the companion website offers a range of resources including an interactive historical timeline, an indispensable study skills section for students, tips for teaching and learning thematically, and PowerPoint slides, lecture material, and discussion questions in a password-protected area for instructors. China's Mongols at University Zhenzhou Zhao, 2010-04-09 Minority students in China often receive preferential treatment for access to universities However very little is known about minority student experiences and perceptions on campus after they are accorded what's called meaningful access to university The Mongols emerged as a distinct ethnic group in China starting in the 11th century and in the centuries that followed conquered a large part of the world However in modern times this nomadic people's influence has declined and even their survival in China has been threatened This decline is evidenced by the fact that increasing numbers of Mongols have abandoned their native language and traditional customs especially those who live in cities How do Mongol university students who form the backbone of the Mongol intellectual community identify themselves in a modern Chinese context How do they react as university students to the way in which their culture is recognized and represented Do Mongol students suffer from injustice in the cultural dimension of campus life China's Mongols at University Contesting Cultural Recognition seeks to answer these questions Zhenzhou Zhao addresses these issues by comparing the university discourse on minority culture policy institutional structure and daily life and the Mongol student discourse concerning their experiences perceptions of recognition and dedication to self representation on campus Additionally Gao compares three universities in China Located in Inner Mongolia Autonomous Region Beijing and Hubei Province respectively each of these universities represents one of three types of higher education accessible to minority students in China universities located in ethnic areas standard universities and universities for nationalities China's Mongols at University explores and discusses an intrinsic connection between marketization and globalization and the disadvantages faced by minority groups This book argues that China must move from a policy of preferential treatment
