Performance Studies in Canada Laura Levin,Marlis Schweitzer,2017-06-01 Tracing performance studies paths in Canada Biblical Hermeneutics in the Metamodern Mood Seán M. W. McGuire,2024-07-23 Why do contemporary Christians seem to routinely talk past one another amid contentious theological debates In this illuminating study Sean M W McGuire argues that interpreters lack of self critical reflection on the process of interpretation and compounding cultural factors are problematizing interpretive practice Thus to work through difficult topics Christians need to develop the ability to reflect on the complexity informing how they interpret Scripture and how they see others interpreting Scripture so that they can coherently and constructively discuss their interpretations with others Grounding the study in the discipline of practical theology McGuire utilizes the cultural theory of metamodernism and the hermeneutics of Hans Georg Gadamer 1900 2002 together with a proposed revision of the Wesleyan Quadrilateral to develop a paradigm for observing and describing differences in biblical interpretive practice Using current debates regarding sexuality as an illustrative example the project reveals the complexity underlying contemporary interpretive practice showing that amid this complexity the prioritization or lack thereof of theological reflection sources prompts certain interpretive conclusions Perceiving the multivalent nature of interpretation readers will be equipped to think carefully and critically about how they come to their biblical interpretive conclusions and how those conclusions inform transformed living in Christ Generations and Nationalism Alain-G Gagnon, Luc Turgeon, 2025-09-02 Generations and Nationalism breaks new ground by placing the impact of generation and generational changes at the forefront of an investigation on the transformation of nationalist movements and the evolution of support for independence in Catalonia Quebec and Scotland The main objective of the book is to explore how a focus on generations and generational change can add first to the theoretical toolkit used in the study of nationalism and second can lead to a better understanding of the recent evolution of nationalism in three internal nations Catalonia Quebec and Scotland The book is also an occasion to revisit the distinct evolution of nationalism in these three internal nations that have been the object of important comparative studies in the past and frequent comparisons in public discourses but in which nationalist movements have gone through relatively distinct transformations over the past decade The different chapters tackle nation building autonomy and self determination ethnic identity conflict and accommodation ethnonationalism irredentism and separatism and immigration naturalization and citizenship The book also is unique to the extent that it establishes a dialogue between scholars who are specialists of public opinion drawing on quantitative methods and scholars drawing on different comparative historical perspectives in sociology and political science Containing both theoretical discussions of nationalism as well as case studies and comparative analyses of nationalist movements Generations and Nationalism will be of great interest to students and scholars researching nationalism public opinion youth politics political theory and quantitative and historical methods

Political Engagement in Canadian

City Elections R. Michael McGregor,Laura B. Stephenson,2024-03-12 Municipal elections in Canada don t look much like those held at the federal and provincial levels A key difference is a significant discrepancy in voter turnout but relatively little is known about why far fewer people vote in city elections Voters show less interest in local government seeing it as less influential than other levels yet they believe their views matter more to local politicians Political Engagement in Canadian City Elections explores this apparent contradiction by asking who participates in politics how they go about it and why

Drawing from the Canadian Municipal Election Study a novel survey of electors in eight large cities across the country in 2017 and 2018 contributors consider factors ranging from the universal such as the demographic profile of voters or how economic conditions affect them to the specific for example participation in school board and council elections There are more municipal elections than any other kind in Canada The discoveries in Political Engagement in Canadian City Elections collectively represent a major leap forward in our understanding of voter activity at the community and municipal level
