Engaging Terror Marianne Vardalos,2009 Engaging Terror A Critical and Interdisciplinary Approach is a collection of select extended papers drawn from The Human Condition Series THCS conference on Terror that took place in May 2008 The international scope of the conference drew participants from twenty three countries including Brazil Columbia Cuba France Israel Lebanon Lithuania New Zealand Nigeria Pakistan the Philippines Scotland Singapore South Africa Turkey and the United Kingdom The thirty five essays presented here are a representative sample of the interdisciplinary discussion which sought to analyze popular concepts like terrorism and terrorist as social political and psychosocial phenomena Engaging Terror seeks to reveal the diverse forms of terror that persist in contemporary societies For instance cultural forms such as the fine arts film literature mass media religion and market economy continue to define and limit rationality and freedom through institutionalized forms of terror In this way terror shapes our experiences not only through the politics of nation building and international relations but also through the social and ideological production of fear in everyday life Topics covered in this volume include the representation and production of terror from a multiplicity of sites ranging from mental health practices and organized religion to news coverage and musical scores This book will appeal to both scholars and general readers interested in how seemingly benign forms of terror shape and maintain the contemporary human condition Reaching beyond mainstream studies on terror as simply an international political phenomenon this interdisciplinary collection of work multiplies the fields of critical research to broaden the scope of analysis and fundamentally challenge the state of modernity

Beyond Hybridity and Fundamentalism

Tabassum Ruhi Khan,2015-05-28 The question of identity and especially its formation among youth has received significant academic attention as our worlds become intricately and unpredictably connected through satellite televisions mobile telephones Internet and social networking platforms Marking a distinct addition to such scholarship this volume is an ethnographic study of the under investigated issue of Indian Muslim youth s emergent subjectivity in a media saturated globalized Indian society The author develops the idea of convoluted modernity to explain Muslim youth s reactions to multifarious and divergent influences both from the East as well as the West shaping their everyday life The concept illustrates how Muslim youths ideas about self and community draw equally on MTV as on Peace TV to create a complex truck between consumerist hedonism and globalized Islam Introducing a new perspective to studies on globalization media and cultural politics this book shows how interpolation of local and global in the accelerated virtual spheres and their contextual interpretation within an expanding economy notwithstanding Muslim youth s disadvantaged position shape alternate modernities rife with ambiguities and beyond binaries of progress and regression

Magical Realism in Twenty-First-Century Transnational Fiction D. Chichester,2025-09-25 Magical Realism in Twenty First Century Transnational Fiction The Global Supernatural offers a much needed re evaluation of magical realism moving beyond traditional postcolonial frameworks to explore its vibrant evolution in the 21st century Analysing the works of contemporary authors like Helen Oyeyemi Mohsin Hamid Preeta Samarasam and Junot D az this book explores how magical realism has been adapted to depict the complex fluid identities and experiences of migrants and their children in a globalised world By employing the psychoanalytic concept of relationality it examines the intricate interplay between cultures beliefs and personal narratives Challenging outdated notions of magic versus realism this study reveals how the supernatural is used to express the disorientation paradox and trauma of transnational lives This book is essential for anyone seeking to understand the enduring creative power of magical realism Transatlantic Literature and Culture After 9/11 K. Miller,2014-09-23 Transatlantic Literature and Culture After 9 11 asks whether post 9 11 America has chosen the wrong side of paradise by waging war on terror rather than working for global peace Analyzing transatlantic literature and culture the book refocuses our view of Ground Zero through the lenses of imperial power and cosmopolitan exchange Post-Orientalism and Contemporary American Novels Mousa Abu Haserah,2023-08-09 This book provides a scientific and academic contribution to the scholarly exploration of the complex relationship between the East and the West in American literature The study focuses on four novels Mornings in Jenin Falling Man The Reluctant Fundamentalist and Riyah Al Janna The Wind of Paradise to discuss how the literature reflects on Middle Eastern themes in relation to the situations and conditions of the New East It treats the Orient as a moving body and takes Edward Said s Orientalism into account also showing Post Orientalism or the New East as a literary phenomenon in the 21st century specializing in politics militarism and post colonial ideology The book explains and divides the Middle East into two parts the Arab Islamic Middle East and the non Arab Islamic Middle East It highlights the similarities and differences between these two parts as depicted in various novels presenting the East as a land of desolation and destruction due to the political regional and religious changes that have shaken it South Asian Atlantic Literature, 1970-2010 Ruth Maxey,2017-10-04

This book is a sustained attempt to chart and interpret a wide range of recent South Asian diasporic writing from Britain and America in specifically transatlantic terms This body of literature has grown substantially since the 1970s receiving not only critical acclaim but also widespread popular interest and its favoured themes have also found expression in cinematic works Yet scholars have largely overlooked the transatlantic development of South Asian writing over the past three decades Maxey s book fill this gap in transatlantic studies by offering fresh readings of canonical writers and texts while bringing to light lesser known authors and ideas Tracing a literary lineage for works from different genres it identifies key trends in recent South Asian American and British Asian literature by considering the favoured formal and aesthetic modes of major writers and by relating their work to different historical developments sexual politics the marketplace and issues of literary value The book thus engages with longer established debates as well as intervening in new ways in Atlantic Studies and in such fields as postcolonial literary studies and Asian American cultural studies Key Features A book length study of recent South Asian diasporic literature in transatlantic terms Examines a wide range of canonical and under researched writers Investigates key themes the majority of which remain under explored Identifies major formal and aesthetic trends and positions works within their wider intellectual and commercial context Neap Tony Thompson,2010 Literature of the Global Age Maurizio Ascari,2014-01-10 In an age of world citizenship literary scholarship is focusing increasingly on texts which communicate effectively over cultural lines Advocating a planetary approach to contemporary literature this critical text examines eight novels from eight cultures The writers discussed are Julian Barnes Magda Szabo Abraham B Yehoshua

Ian McEwan W G Sebald Murakami Haruki Jonathan Safran Foer and Azar Nafisi Focusing on the authors encouragement to meditate on life's most pressing issues the essays here invite us to reevaluate postmodernism as a current category Book Review Index - 2009 Cumulation Dana Ferguson, 2009-08 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests. The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool.
