Subject And Predicate In Logic And Grammar:

Subject and Predicate in Logic and Grammar P. F. Strawson, 1976 Subject and Predicate in Logic and Grammar
P. F. Strawson, 2004 P F Strawson has supplied a new introduction for this reissue of his modern classic originally published in 1974 Subject and Predicate in Logic and Grammar explores two conceptions of subject and predicate one of which lies at the core of standard logic and the other more closely relates to surface forms of natural language Strawson renders these two conceptions and their divergences intelligible by relating them both to the basic case in which the subject term designates a substantial spatio temporal individual The Logic of Language Pieter A. M. Seuren, 2010 This book opens a new perspective on logic After analyzing the functional adequacy of natural predicate logic and standard modern logic for natural linguistic interaction the author develops a general theory of discourse bound interpretation covering such topics as discourse incrementation anaphora presupposition and topic comment structure History of Linguistics 1996 David Cram, Andrew R. Linn, Elke Nowak, 1999-12-15 The papers in this volume present a colourful picture of the range of research currently being undertaken in the field of the history of linguistics with contribution both from established scholars and from younger researchers The volume is organised on a geographical basis with sections devoted to a number of different traditions in linguistics world wide The opening section is concerned with a number of general and methodological topics ranging from the notion of revolution in linguistic historiography to the history of the study of ape language The second section is devoted to missionary linguistics an umbrella category for the early contacts of Europeans with non European languages Subsequent sections address individual traditions in linguistics III The Celtic Tradition IV The Chinese Tradition V The Georgian Tradition VI The Hebrew Tradition VII The Japanese Tradition VIII The Persian Tradition IX The Russian Tradition X The Tamil Tradition Statement and Inference, with Other Philosophical Papers John Cook Wilson, 1926
