Subject New California Poetry:

Subject Laura Mullen, 2005-04-01 Calvin Bedient calls the poetry in this volume solid and brave and relentlessly inventive Forrest Gander says The obsessive force of this poetry ruptured by caesura and stanza is remarkable Despite the considerable intellectual torque the poems concerned always with identity the borders of the I and the Here are quite funny in passages The drama of this work is gripping convulsive and intense Subject holds the mirror up to language attempting to find out and find ways out of the limits of the words we are sentenced to The lyric impulse exists but the surface is rough reflecting the violence of the effort to see into seeing itself the voice is ragged syntax is torn words have been broken into syllable and sound images dissolve the page holds out alternate visions and versions in double or triple columns leaving any would be univocal truth always in doubt Ours Cole Swensen, 2008-04-08 A remarkably adept even facile craftsman I know of no poet who makes the most stunning verbal effects on the page look more effortless Her critical assumptions literary strategies and approach to the text clearly place her among the finest post avant poets we now have Ron Silliman author of The Age of Huts complete Green and Gray Geoffrey G. O'Brien, 2007-04-09 Publisher description New California poetry [Anonymus AC04092023], 2000 Rimertown Laura Walker, 2008 Laura Walker's atlas is sung and wrung out of a deep listening to every word and this is rare The poems are full of dirt weeds and butternut squash but even if the place from which not of which Walker writes were full of skyscrapers or strip malls her connection to her language and her materials would be as particular as true Such singularity of connection actual opens the field of meaning and experience for the reader coming into it to gather and move to suffer in spells and flower in the greening and the sound Lisa Fishman author of The Happiness Experiment Praise for previous work There is an intimate lilt an indelible charm a bygone narrator in Laura Walker's elegant collection Her tangibility of voice seems to know a listener Conversation dares with an undone presence In other words you can put your feet up You can find shade Laynie Browne Poetry Project Newsletter Dark Archive Laura Mullen, 2011-03-29 Dark archive The purpose of a dark archive is to function as a repository for information that can be used as a failsafe during disaster recovery Laura Mullen's fourth collection is a sequence of beautifully interrelated poems that explores how to accurately represent the reality of change and loss Mullen pinpoints what is at stake the possibility of communication and connection and the hope of intimacy Invoking Wordsworth's I wandered lonely as a cloud she pushes experiments in consciousness against their boundaries in an array of poetic forms Poetic tropes are measured against natural phenomena as Mullen examines what witness might mean in the context of the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina the failures of capitalism to effect social justice the murder of James Byrd in Texas the personal loss of a mother figure and a disintegrating love affair Italian American Poetics of Place Sabrina Vellucci, 2024-11-19 This volume examines the significance of place in contemporary Italian American literature from an ecocritical perspective It fills a gap in the theoretical discourse on Italian American culture whose concerns about environmental justice have been mostly overlooked From mid twentieth century poets such as John Ciardi and Diane di Prima to late twentieth and twenty first century fiction writers such as Carole Maso and Salvatore Scibona the study combines Italian American literary criticism with the spatial turn that over the last decades has asserted the interpretive significance of place and the environment in literary texts Questioning the prejudice that sees Italian American culture as detached from ecological issues these works show that such diasporic heritage has helped forge different modes of relationship and new forms of expression in contact with the American land Their relevance lies not so much in defining or redefining Italian American ethnicity but in forging ideas and futures beyond their immediate framework and subject matter By focusing on the intersection of gender and ethnicity with local and transnational spaces and aesthetic practices Italian American Poetics of Place contributes to the growing field of inquiry that explores the resources of the literary in laying the basis for more dialogic and inclusive forms of awareness and community with both the human and other than human

The Politics of Collecting Eunsong Kim,2024-06-24 In The Politics of Collecting Eunsong Kim traces how racial capitalism and colonialism situated the rise of US museum collections and conceptual art forms Investigating historical legal and property claims she argues that regimes of expropriation rather than merit or good taste are responsible for popular ideas of formal innovation and artistic genius In doing so she details how Marcel Duchamp s canonization has more to do with his patron s donations to museums than it does the quality of Duchamp s work and uncovers the racialized and financialized logic behind the Archive of New Poetry s collecting practices Ranging from the conception of philanthropy devised by the robber barons of the late nineteenth century to ongoing digitization projects Kim provides a new history of contemporary art that accounts for the complicated entanglement of race capital and labor behind storied art institutions and artists Drawing on history theory and economics Kim challenges received notions of artistic success and talent and calls for a new vision of art beyond the cultural institution

The Changing Culture of Libraries Renee Feinberg,2001-07-20 From the civil rights and antiwar demonstration 1960s to the age of the electronic library there have always been many librarians and readers who care deeply about library traditions In compiling this collection of 18 essays editor Renee Feinberg has included writers who give voice to their struggle to preserve something of a classic library culture in a dot com environment Essays cover childhood library memories and reasons for going to library school the perspective of a blind library professional and small town library development The thoughts of a cataloguing librarian of an academic librarian on preservation of collections of an American using libraries at Cambridge and the British Museum as a college student and of a reference and bibliographic librarian at a small Midwestern liberal arts college are related Writers discuss their experiences in the libraries of Southern California Montserrat in the aftermath of hurricane and volcano and the participation of alternative libraries in South Africa s anti apartheid movement Fighting discrimination promoting ethnic minorities in the profession and reaching out with technology to those who have
