Douglas D. Webster, 2024-05-08 In More than a Sermon Douglas D Webster highlights the prophetic and pastoral challenge of preaching today The task is both harder and easier than we imagine as we are called to proclaim the biblical text in a way that convicts a hostile world while encouraging our congregations to rest in Christ s love We need preaching that both swings the hammer that breaks hard hearts yet does not break the bruised reeds in our care Offering practical insights and examples Webster explores what it means to preach the gospel in different seasons such as Advent and Lent memorial services and weddings and times of crisis or social impact More than a Sermon is a valuable resource for both new pastors and veteran preachers who want to proclaim the whole counsel of God with power and wisdom Power and the Pulpit
Gerald Hiestand, Joel Lawrence, 2025-10-22 The evangelical tradition places the sermon at the center of church life We build buildings around pulpits and preachers We champion gifted communicators We celebrate effective homiletical techniques But too often these emphases are not the result of deep theological convictions but of the church s adoption of modern visions of communication and success In our day preaching is easily unmoored from its biblical theological and historical anchors Too often it has become a tool of celebrity We have seen pulpits and preaching taken captive by political and pragmatic ideologies The teaching office of the church has sometimes been manipulated to secure and maintain human power The present condition of much preaching in our time compels us to ask What is our theology of preaching Is our vision of the sermon rooted in the miracle of God s word proclaimed or in the desire to entertain Is our preaching a function of a theology of glory or a theology of the cross Reflecting on such questions the essays in this volume seek to chart a path forward for word centered God glorifying preaching The Ministry We Need Jeremy A. What would cause the apostle Paul to testify that I am innocent of the blood of all Godly qualities characterized his ministry and outside of Christ s there is no greater ministry example All ministers struggle and we all know those who toil in frustration alongside us in the Lord s field You may be amid deep struggle now worn tattered scarred ready to quit you have lost the focus and the joy of your calling Most of us in ministry have known those who have either left the ministry or shipwrecked their faith Quite possibly this is you What we need to do is put our hands to the plow focus on our calling and the path before us and determine to finish well Drawing on Paul s example from Acts 20 17 38 the authors prescribe ministry principles touching on a wide range of pastoral and preaching insights Some have a ministry they should not want some desire a ministry they think they want but this book seeks to identify the ministry we need The
