American Book Publishing Record, 2003 Language and Literacy Connections Geraldine P. Wallach, Elaine Ocampo, 2020-12-03 Language and Literacy Connections Intervention for School Age Children and Adolescents takes readers on a path of knowledge steeped in principles and practical applications. This much needed new text uniquely integrates language learning and disorders and literacy together in a coherent and cohesive narrative that covers the challenges facing school age students from early elementary levels through high school. Using past and current research and interventions from speech language pathology (SLP) and reading and literacy arenas, the authors present transcripts, cases, and detailed intervention sessions to provide a template for daily practice. The text raises questions relating to why am I doing this and provides some answers to this most complex yet basic question. Language and Literacy Connections Uses strong theoretical foundations with detailed applications to real life situations and practices. Highlights the different levels of literacy from foundational to disciplinary that underpin current thinking. Includes three major sections that build upon one another as the authors navigate through 1 conceptual frameworks 2 practical applications across discourse intervention and individual language components and 3 service delivery models. Addresses the role of comprehension in auditory processing and classroom difficulties. Compares effective and less effective intervention sessions with explanations about why each fall within a category. Debunks common myths and practices that have been questionable for decades but that persist in practice. Offers innovative suggestions related to providing collaborative service delivery procedures through virtual online platforms and
