Canal Talks Resume

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Egyptian government and the United States resumed talks today on the Suez Canal, after a two-day hiatus. The talks, which began in 1976, are part of a series of negotiations aimed at resolving the long-standing dispute over the canal's operation and ownership. The Egyptian government, led by President Anwar Sadat, has been pushing for a full transfer of control to Egypt, while the United States has been advocating for a more balanced approach that takes into account the interests of all parties involved. The talks are expected to continue for several more days, with both sides showing a willingness to make concessions in order to reach a final agreement.

Survivor Reflects

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A survivor of the recent earthquake in Mexico City reflected on the tragedy today, expressing a sense of loss and a desire for peace. The survivor, who was one of the few people to escape the disaster unharmed, described the chaos and destruction that followed the quake, which killed thousands of people and left millions homeless. He said that he was grateful to be alive and that he hoped that the world would learn from the tragedy and work to prevent such disasters in the future. The survivor's reflections were part of a series of interviews with other survivors, which are being broadcast on television and in newspapers across the United States.
