Small Business Marketing In A Week John Sealey,2013-04-26 Marketing your small business just got easier It s been said that the most important area for any business to focus on is its marketing Of course there are areas like finance customer service and the product or service itself which are key but without good marketing approaches there s no revenue for your account systems to do their job there s no customer to serve and the product or service becomes redundant Most business owners are experts in what they do and so they should be What they also have to be good at is marketing what they do And if you feel there s more you could be doing on the marketing front then this book will give you those ideas As a small business owner you get involved in all aspects of your business and marketing is such a large field you can t be expected to learn everything you need in one day So to break down this behemoth of a topic we ll approach it a bite at a time You have in your hands a tool that will guide you through what s needed day by day over the period of a week That way you re not trying to eat the elephant all at once The unpredictable nature of marketing your business will start to disappear as you move through the necessary steps needed to make your marketing efforts more effective than ever before. Some of the ideas you may already be implementing while others may well be new to you. Either way putting them together into a proven system will enable you and your business to thrive regardless of the economic climate you find yourself in. You're about to learn in a week how you can have a marketing system that enables you to attract, win and keep more customers and as a result build your sales and your profitability.

Sunday: Preparing the ground

Monday: Attracting the right type of customers

Tuesday: Keeping your customers longer

Wednesday: Increasing customer loyalty and purchasing frequency

Thursday: Increasing the value of your sales

Friday: Getting new clients and better clients faster

Saturday: Measuring and managing your marketing activities

Normalize Great Service - The 5-Week Plan

Cristina Dragan, 2024-05-14

Normalize Great Service The 5 Week Plan is a detailed practical guide inspired by 5 hospitality best practices for entrepreneurs and small business owners to better serve their employees and customers. It leads with the vision that great quality service should be normalized, making it possible to have attentive and professional interactions across all customer-facing businesses, regardless of their scale and level of luxury or simplicity. Along with a structured and practical approach to change, allocating the necessary importance to the follow-up steps as well as reinforcement and celebration, the guide includes:

- Self audits to assess the current state of employee engagement or customer satisfaction.
- A Facilitator Guide to help you streamline the training.
- A Participant Workbook to serve as the foundation for your team members' training.
- An abundance of examples to inspire you based on a practical study case.
- Useful exercises and templates to support your team's efforts.

So Take What You Need and Join the Movement to Normalize Great Service. If you are a small business owner in the customer-facing service industry, a servicepreneur, then you are the leader; everything will reflect your actions and decisions. So TAKE WHAT YOU NEED and your team NEED to exceed those expectations. Appreciate and celebrate more, listen to the emotional and physical voice of your employees to better care for them and listen to the needs and wishes of your customers to guide your service. If you are a freelancer or a solopreneur, you are a one-woman show, being at the same time the business, the employee, the brand, and the values. TAKE WHAT YOU NEED to shape your skills and create experiences rather than provide services. Answer that call, write that email, connect in that meeting, and deliver that project at its best level. Select the gestures, words, tools, and mentalities that add value to your work. If you are a service professional, I admire your dedication to self-development. TAKE WHAT YOU NEED to upgrade your many talents, become even more valuable on the market, and declare yourself an experienced curator because that's what you are. If you are a customer and all of us are customers, daily respect yourself by not accepting service below expectations and appreciate the service employees' continuous effort to create experiences. TAKE WHAT YOU NEED, know what you deserve, and don't settle for less.
