Ai Weiwei,2013 Ai Weiwei's Blog Ai Weiwei,2011-03-18 Manifestos and immodest proposals from China's most famous artist and activist culled from his popular blog shut down by Chinese authorities in 2009 In 2006 even though he could barely type China's most famous artist started blogging For more than three years Ai Weiwei turned out a steady stream of scathing social commentary criticism of government policy thoughts on art and architecture and autobiographical writings He wrote about the Sichuan earthquake and posted a list of the schoolchildren who died because of the government's tofu dregs engineering reminisced about Andy Warhol and the East Village art scene described the irony of being investigated for fraud by the Ministry of Public Security made a modest proposal for tax collection Then on June 1 2009 Chinese authorities shut down the blog This book offers a collection of Ai's notorious online writings translated into English the most complete public documentation of the original Chinese blog available in any language The New York Times called Ai a figure of Warholian celebrity He is a leading figure on the international art scene a regular in museums and biennials but in China he is a manifold and controversial presence artist architect curator social critic justice seeker He was a consultant on the design of the famous Bird's Nest stadium but called for an Olympic boycott he received a Chinese Contemporary Art lifetime achievement award in 2008 but was beaten by the police in connection with his citizen investigation of earthquake casualties in 2009 Ai Weiwei's Blog documents Ai's passion his genius his hubris his righteous anger and his vision for China

Language for Specific Purposes Giuliana Elena Garzone, Dermot Heaney, Giorgia Riboni, 2017-01-06 This volume brings together work by both well known scholars and emerging researchers in the various areas of Language for Specific Purposes LSP such as political legal medical and business discourse The volume is divided into three parts in order to align rather than separate three different but related aspects of LSP namely translation linguistic research and domain specific communication on the web Underlying all the contributions here is the growing awareness of the ever increasing multiformity of specialised communication and the ever wider social implications of the communicative situations in which it is embedded especially where it involves the need to move across languages cultures and modes as in translation and interpreting The contributions consistently bear witness to the need to review received notions pose new questions and explore fresh perspectives The picture that emerges is one of extreme complexity in which researchers into specifically linguistic aspects of LSPs and their translation across languages and media declare their awareness of the pressing need to come to terms with a wide range of social pragmatic intercultural and political factors above and beyond socio technical knowledge of the domains under investigation

Celebrity, Convergence and Transformation Douglas Brownlie, Paul Hewer, Finola Kerrigan, 2017-07-28 Bringing together the latest thinking on both celebrity brands and celebrity culture from academics specialising in the field of marketing this book explores a range of insightful contexts in order to add vigour and vitality to our understanding of the connections between celebrities markets and culture It unpacks the identity theoretics which have their origins in the turn to celebrity culture and the spectacle and glamour of mass media practices In doing so the contributors hint at new forms of individuation where the line between the virtual and the actual is blurred and where images of celebrities construct and deconstruct themselves This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Marketing Management

(Inter)Facing Death Sam Han, 2019-10-16 In modern times death is understood to have undergone a transformation not unlike religion Whereas in the past it was out in the open it now resides mostly in specialized spaces of sequestration funeral homes hospitals and other medical facilities A mainstay in so called traditional societies in the form of ritual practices death was usually messy but meaningful with the questions of what happens to the dead or where they go lying at the heart of traditional culture and religion In modernity however we are said to have effectively sanitized it embalmed it and packaged it but it seems that death is back In the current era marked by economic political and social uncertainty we see it on television on the Internet we see it almost everywhere Inter Facing Death analyzes the nexus of death and digital culture in the contemporary moment in the context of recent developments in social cultural and political theory It argues that death today can be thought of as interfaced that is mediated and expressed in various aspects of contemporary life rather than put to the side or overcome as many narratives of modernity have suggested Employing concepts from anthropology sociology media studies and communications Inter Facing Death examines diverse phenomena where death and digital culture meet including art online suicide pacts the mourning of celebrity deaths terrorist beheadings and selfies Providing new lines of thinking about one of the oldest questions facing the human and social sciences this book will appeal to scholars and students of social and political theory anthropology sociology and cultural and media studies with interests in death

Cultures, Citizenship and Human Rights Rosemarie Buikema, Antoine Buyse, Antonius C. G. M. Robben, 2019-11-19

In Cultures Citizenship and Human Rights the combined analytical efforts of the fields of human rights law conflict studies anthropology history media studies gender studies and critical race and postcolonial studies raise a comprehensive understanding of the discursive and visual mediation of migration and manifestations of belonging and citizenship More insight into the convergence but also the tensions between the cultural and the legal foundations of citizenship has proven to be vital to the understanding of societies past and present especially to assess processes of inclusion and exclusion Citizenship is more than a collection of rights and privileges held by the individual members of a state but involves cultural and historical interpretations legal contestation and regulation as well as an active engagement with national regional and local state and other institutions about the boundaries of those implicitly gendered and raced rights and privileges Highlighting and assessing the transformations of what citizenship entails today is crucially important to the future of Europe which both as an idea and as a practical project faces challenges that range from the crisis of legitimacy to the problems posed by mass migration Many of the issues addressed in this book however also play out in other parts of the world as several of the chapters reflect This book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com They have been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license

Contemporary German-Chinese Cultures in Dialogue Haina Jin, Anna Stecher, Rebecca Ehrenwirth, 2023-05-16

This book provides a unique perspective on contemporary German and Chinese cultural encounters Moving away from highlighting exchanges between the two countries in terms of colonial connections religious influences and philosophical impacts the book instead focuses on the vast array of modern cultural dialogues that have influenced both countries especially in literature theatre and film The book discusses issues of translation adaptation and reception to reveal a unique cultural relationship The editors and contributors examine the existing programs and strategies for cultural interchange and analyse how these shape or have shaped intercultural dialogue and what kind of intercultural exchange is encouraged This book is of interest to students and researchers of film and media studies Sinophone studies transnational studies cultural studies and social and cultural anthropology The Power of Sociology Gudmundur Oddsson, Jenny M. Stuber, James Michael Thomas, 2026-01-13 The Power of Sociology uses the study of social inequality as it relates to power the heart of sociology as a vehicle to survey the field Written explicitly from a cross cultural and comparative perspective it challenges students to see themselves as global citizens capable of affecting social change

Weiwei-ismes Weiwei Ai, Larry Warsh, 2015-11-14 Ai Weiwei est l'un des artistes contemporains chinois les plus engagés politiquement et les plus controversés de sa génération. Agitateur de conscience, il utilise l'art comme vecteur de promotion de la liberté d'expression du peuple chinois. Au moyen d'œuvres de performances et de citations, Ai Weiwei tente de briser la psychologie de la peur instaurée par son gouvernement. La suprématie du système communiste chinois a ainsi donné naissance malgré lui à l'un des artistes les plus critiques envers Pékin. Ai Weiwei est un artiste qui s'exprime au nom de tous au nom de valeurs universelles et humaines dans une société contemporaine en croisant l'autocensure. Weiwei ismes expose la vision de cet artiste hors du commun qui traverse de fulgurants aphorismes nous faisant prendre conscience de la valeur des mots et des idées. Aussi artistique que politique, Weiwei ismes est un manifeste défense des valeurs démocratiques autant qu'un outil de changement des consciences dans une société gouvernée par le pouvoir plutôt que par les hommes. Ai Weiwei,

Spatial Matters Weiwei Ai, Anthony Pinn, 2014 This book draws on the full breadth of Ai Weiwei's architectural installation and activist work, including drawings and plans from a huge range of international projects, with particular emphasis on his use of space. Throughout the book, a wide selection of essays by leading critics and art historians, as well as interviews with the artist, draw out his central concerns. Jacket Humanity Ai Weiwei, 2018-04-24 Writings on human life and the refugee crisis by the most important political artist of our time. Ai Weiwei, b. 1957, is widely known as an artist across media: sculpture, installation, photography, performance and architecture. He is also one of the world's most important artist-activists and a powerful documentary filmmaker. His work and art call attention to attacks on democracy and free speech, abuses of human rights and human displacement, often on an epic international scale. This collection of quotations demonstrates the range of Ai Weiwei's thinking on humanity and mass migration issues that have occupied him for decades. Selected from articles, interviews and conversations, Ai Weiwei's words speak to the profound urgency of the global refugee crisis, the resilience and vulnerability of the human condition and the role of art in providing a voice for the voiceless. Select quotations from the book:

This problem has such a long history, a human history. We are all refugees, somehow, somewhere, and at some moment. Allowing borders to determine your thinking is incompatible with the modern era. Art is about aesthetics, about morals, about our beliefs in humanity. Without that, there is simply no art. I don't care what all people think. My work belongs to the people who have no voice. Ai Weiwei: Yours Truly, 2018-09-11 Renowned artist Ai Weiwei engaged nearly 900,000 visitors in a conversation about human rights with his art installation Large Ai Weiwei on Alcatraz. In one participatory piece, Yours Truly visitors sent 92 829 postcards to prisoners of conscience around the world This book delves into those postcards lasting impact Five former prisoners and their loved ones reflect on the experience of receiving hundreds of postcards while imprisoned Essays and a statement by Ai Weiwei contextualize this extraordinary project And photographs taken during the exhibition show visitors and the messages they wrote
