We Shall Suffer There Hong Kong's Defenders Imprisoned 1942-45:

We Shall Suffer There Tony Banham, 2009-03-01 Tony Banham documents the experiences of Hong Kong's prisoners of war and civilian internees from their capture by the Japanese in December 1941 to liberation, rescue and repatriation.

Hong Kong's War Crimes Trials Suzannah Linton, 2013-09-26 Immediately after the Second World War 46 trials were held by the British military in Hong Kong in which 123 defendants mainly from Japan were tried for war crimes. This book is the first to analyze these trials situating them within their historical context and showing their importance for the development of international criminal law.

More than 1001 Days and Nights of Hong Kong Internment Chaloner Grenville Alabaster, 2022-03-11 More Than 1001 Days and Nights of Hong Kong Internment is the wartime journal of Sir Chaloner Grenville Alabaster, former attorney general of Hong Kong and one of the three highest ranking British officials during the Japanese occupation. He was imprisoned by the Japanese at the Stanley Internment Camp from 1941 to 1945. During his internment he managed to keep a diary of his life in the camp in small notebooks and hid them until his release in 1945. He then wrote his wartime journal on the basis of these notes. The journal records his day to day experiences of the fall of Hong Kong, his time at Stanley and his eventual release. Some of the most fascinating extracts cover the three months immediately after the fall of Hong Kong and when Alabaster and his colleagues were imprisoned in Prince's Building in Central and before they were sent to the camp a period little covered in previous publications. Hence the book is an important primary source for understanding the daily operation of the Stanley Internment Camp and the camp's environment. Readers will also learn more about the daily life of those imprisoned in the camp and C G Alabaster's interaction with other prisoners there. A prominent figure in pre war Hong Kong Alabaster was one of the leaders of the British community in Stanley Internment Camp. His recently discovered journal provides a detailed and candid account of the routines, anxieties and hardships of camp life. It also offers new insights into the complex politics and divisions among internees. With its substantial editorial introduction this book is an important addition to the growing literature on internment during Japan's wartime occupation of Hong Kong.

Christopher Munn University of Hong Kong Of the many memoirs of the Stanley civilian internment camp this is perhaps the most fascinating and engrossing. Written soon after the war and based on a diary it is not only a day by day description of the travails of life in captivity but also more interestingly an account of the inner tensions and divisions that were rampant among the British internees from beginning to end. Edward J M Rhoads University of Texas at Austin The Captain Was a Doctor Jonathon Reid, 2020-10-24 A Canadian medical officer and prisoner of war returns from the Second World War a hero and a very different man. In August 1941 John Reid a young Canadian doctor volunteered to join the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps with four friends from medical school. After five weeks of officer training in Ottawa Reid took an optional two week course in tropical medicine a choice which sealed his fate. Assigned to C Force the two Canadian battalions sent to reinforce semi-tropical Hong Kong he was among those captured when the calamitous Battle of Hong Kong ended on Christmas Day After a year in Hong Kong prison camps Reid was chosen as the only officer to accompany 663 Canadian POWs sent to Japan to work as slave labourers His efforts over the next two and a half years to lead treat and protect his men were heroic He survived the war but finding a peace of his own took ten tumultuous years with casualties of a different sort He would never be the same

Reduced to a Symbolical Scale Tony Banham,2017-08-01 In July 1940 the wives and children of British families in Hong Kong military and civilian were compulsorily evacuated following a plan created by the Hong Kong government in 1939 That plan focused exclusively on the process of evacuation itself but issues concerning how the women and children should settle in the new country communication with abandoned husbands and reuniting families after the war were not considered In practice few would ever be addressed When evacuation came 3 500 people would simply be dumped in Australia The experience of the evacuees can be seen as a three act drama delivery to Australia creates tension five years of war and uncertainty intensify it and resolution comes as war ends However that drama unlike the evacuation plan did not develop in a vacuum but was embedded in a complex historical political and social environment Based on archival research of official documents letters and memoirs and interviews and discussions with more than one hundred evacuees and their families this book studies the evacuation within that entire context Reduced to a Symbolical Scale is an original and interesting addition to the evacuation literature Tony Banham has done a masterly job of integrating archival documents with other forms of communication The stories of individual evacuees and their families are very skilfully woven into the narrative John Welshman Lancaster University author of Churchill s Children The Evacuee Experience in Wartime Britain

Eastern Fortress Kwong Chi Man,Tsoi Yiu Lun,2014-07-01 Celebrated as a trading port Hong Kong was also Britain s eastern fortress Likened by many to Gibraltar and Malta the colony was a vital but vulnerable link in imperial strategy exposed to a succession of enemies in a turbulent age and a troubled region This book examines Hong Kong s developing role in the Victorian imperial defence system the emerging challenges from Russia France the United States Germany Japan and other powers and preparations in the years leading up to the Second World War A detailed chapter offers new interpretations of the Battle of Hong Kong of 1941 when the colony succumbed to the Japanese invasion The remaining chapters discuss Hong Kong s changing strategic role during the Cold War and the winding down of the military presence The book not only focuses on policies and events but also explores the social life of the garrison in Hong Kong the struggles between military and civil authorities and relations between the armed forces and civilians in Hong Kong Drawing on original research in archives around the world including English Japanese and Chinese sources this is the first full length study of the defence of Hong Kong from the beginning of the colonial period to the end of British military interests East of Suez in 1970 Illustrated with images and detailed maps Eastern Fortress will be of interest to both students of history and general readers Kwong Chi Man is an assistant professor in the History Department of Hong Kong Baptist University Tsoi Yiu Lun teaches history and liberal studies at Mu Kuang English School Hong Kong Armed with a range of declassified archives many of them unpublished Kwong and Tsoi expertly weave together military political social and economic history to show how Hong Kong played a strategic role in East Asia and the British Empire from the early 1840s to the 1970s Eastern Fortress is a must read for anyone interested in Hong Kong and its history John Carroll author of A Concise History of Hong Kong and Edge of Empires Chinese Elites and British Colonials in Hong Kong This careful and well written study does a difficult balancing act very well indeed It connects the military history of Hong Kong to both the general Hong Kong experience and the wider military history of the region and beyond Weaving its way with confidence from archive to library from grand strategy to battlefield this volume provides what we have long needed Hong Kong s experience was unique but at the same time it was integrally connected to the wider circles of empire region and Asia Nothing brings that trajectory out more strongly than the military dimension and by ranging from the Opium War to the Cold War with a critical eye this volume does that story justice It is the capstone that brings together a generation of good scholarship on the military history of Hong Kong Brian Farrell author of The Basis and Making of British Grand Strategy 1940 1943 Was There a Plan and co author of Between Two Oceans A Military History of Singapore from First Settlement to Final British Withdrawal Target Hong Kong Steven K. Bailey,2024-02-01 Brought to life by the personal accounts of six Navy pilots and one British POW this is the history of the U S Navy airstrikes on Japanese held Hong Kong Commander John Lamade started the war in 1941 a nervous pilot of an antiquated biplane Just over three years later he was in the cockpit of a cutting edge Hellcat about to lead a strike force of 80 aircraft through the turbulent skies above the South China Sea His target Hong Kong As a storm of antiaircraft fire darkened the sky watching from below was POW Ray Jones For three long years he and his fellow prisoners had endured near starvation conditions in a Japanese internment camp Did these American aircraft he wondered herald freedom Trawling through historic records Steven K Bailey discovered that the story of the U S Navy airstrikes on Japanese held Hong Kong during the final year of World War II had never been told Operation Gratitude involved nearly 100 U S Navy warships and close to a thousand planes Target Hong Kong brings this massive operation down to a human scale by recounting the air raids through the experiences of seven men whose lives intersected at Hong Kong in January 1945 Commander John D Lamade five of his fellow U S Navy pilots and the POW Ray Jones Drawing upon oral histories diary transcripts and U S Navy documents this book expertly narrates the intertwined experiences of these servicemen to bring the history to life The Damned Nathan M. Greenfield,2010-10-12 The Damned tells the largely unknown saga of Canada s first land battle of the Second World War fought in the hills and valleys of Hong Kong in December 1941 and the terrible years the survivors of the battle spent as slave labourers for the Empire of Japan The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009 香港囚禁 Hong Kong,2011-04-29 Hong Kong Internment, 1942 to 1945 Geoffrey Charles Emerson,2008 This study based closely on interviews with survivors tells of what life was like in Camp Stanley prisoner of war camp during the Second World War Long Night's Journey Into Day Charles G. Roland,2001-05-22 Based largely on hundreds of interviews with former POWs as well as material culled from archives around the world Professor Roland details the extremes the prisoners endured from having to eat fattened maggots in order to live to choosing starvation by trading away their skimpy rations for cigarettes BOOK JACKET The Battle for Hong Kong, 1941-1945 Oliver Lindsay, John R. Harris, 2006 Oliver Lindsay presents an authoritative account of how the British Canadian Indian and Chinese defenders surrendered Hong Kong to the Japanese after 18 days of intense fighting on Christmas Day 1941 Not the Slightest Chance Tony Banham, 2003 More than 10% of Hong Kong's defenders were killed in battle a further 20% died in captivity Those who survived seldom spoke of their experiences Many died young The little primary material surviving written in POW camps or years after the events is contradictory and muddled Yet with just 14 000 defending the colony it was possible to write from the individual's point of view rather than that of the Big Battalions so favoured by God according to Napoleon and most historians The book assembles a phase by phase day by day hour by hour and death by death account of the battle It considers the individual actions that made up the fighting as well as the strategies and plans and the many controversies that arose Surviving the Sword Brian MacArthur, 2005 We are all too aware of the horror of the Holocaust Fifty five years on the most controversial unresolved issue of the Second World War is the savage treatment of their prisoners by the Japanese For as many as 18 hours a day they toiled in back breaking conditions Disease malaria dengue fever beriberi and dysentery was rife They were treated worse than animals starved of food sleep and shelter while working in death camps Their captors took their Red Cross parcels and laughed the cruelty was abominable Although some individual experiences have been given testimony on film BRIDGE OVER THE RIVER KWAI and in books i e Eric Lomax's THE RAILWAY MAN Brian MacArthur's BUSHIDO is the first comprehensive history of the FEPOWS Far East Prisoners of War Here is the full story of the FEPOWS life on the edge of existence from 1941 when Hong Kong fell and 1942 when Singapore surrendered until 1945 Hong Kong Internment, 1942-1945 Geoffrey Charles Emerson, 2008 Hong Kong Internment tells the story of the more than three thousand non Chinese civilians British American Dutch and others who were trapped in the British colony and interned behind barbed wire in Stanley Internment Camp from 1942 to 1945 From 1970 to 1972 while researching for his MA thesis the author interviewed twenty three former Stanley internees They Never Surrendered George S. Macdonell, 2018-02 This is a story about Canada's soldiers who despite their defeat and capture by the Japanese at Hong Kong in World War 2 never gave up and never stopped fighting On the battlefield suffering heavy casualties they fought with determination and courage until they were ordered to lay down their arms by the British Governor of Hong Kong As Prisoners of war they were shipped to Japan as slave labourers In unimaginable conditions in their camps in Japan many died of starvation overwork disease and savage abuse During nearly four years of their captivity they remained undaunted They never failed in their duty to try to resist and they never submitted to the demands of their cruel enemy While prisoners of war in the very heartland of their enemy their sabotage was astonishingly successful in crippling the Japanese war effort Their courage and defiance are part of our history and one we can be proud of
