Reading the Web, Second Edition Elizabeth Dobler, Maya B. Eagleton, 2015-06-02 Today's students need to know how to locate, comprehend, evaluate, and use online information efficiently and effectively. This widely used teacher guide and course text provides a framework for maximizing students' critical creative use of the Web in grades 3-8. Research-based strategies for instruction and assessment across the content areas are clearly explained and linked to the Common Core State Standards (CCSS). In a large size format for easy photocopying, the book is packed with graphics, sidebars, lesson plans, and more than 90 reproducible handouts. Purchasers get access to a Web page where they can download and print the reproducible materials. New to This Edition: Incorporates state-of-the-art research and Web resources. Chapter on major Web 3.0 developments such as the rise of social media and mobile devices. Connections to the CCSS are identified throughout. Stronger focus on Universal Design for Learning and differentiated instruction. Larger format facilitates photocopying of the updated reproducible tools.

Human-Computer Interaction: Design and Evaluation Masaaki Kurosu, 2015-07-20 The 3 volume set LNCS 9169/9170/9171 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 17th International Conference on Human Computer Interaction (HCII 2015) held in Los Angeles, CA, USA, in August 2015. The total of 1462 papers and 246 posters presented at the HCII 2015 conferences was carefully reviewed and selected from 4843 submissions. These papers address the latest research and development efforts and highlight the human aspects of design and use of computing systems. The papers in LNCS 9169 are organized in topical sections on HCI theory and practice, HCI design and evaluation methods and tools, interaction design, emotions in HCI.

Assessment of Higher Order Thinking Skills Gregory Schraw, Daniel H. Robinson, 2011-09-07 This book explores the assessment of higher order thinking skills through applied cognitive psychology and measurement theory. Covering problem solving, critical thinking, creativity, and more, it examines conceptual models, assessment methods, and practical considerations.

Struggling Readers Lori Jamison Rog, 2014-01-17 The practical strategies in this insightful book show teachers how to give struggling readers the help they really need. Struggling Readers delivers advice on teaching that targets students' needs and offers kids opportunities to read texts that they can and want to read. It highlights explicit instruction and guided practice in comprehension. The book also, and perhaps most importantly, illustrates ways to help students build confidence in themselves as readers, writers, and thinkers.

Teaching to Exceed the English Language Arts Common Core State Standards Richard Beach, Amanda Haertling Thein, Allen Webb, 2012-06-25 As the new English Language Arts Common Core State Standards take hold across the United States, the need grows for pre-service and in-service teachers to be ready to develop curriculum and instruction that addresses their requirements. This timely, thoughtful, and comprehensive text directly meets this need. It delineates a literacy practices and critical engagement curriculum framework for 6-12 English language arts education that explains and illustrates how the Standards' highest and best intentions for student success can be implemented from a critical culturally relevant perspective that is firmly grounded in current literacy learning theory and research The first 6 12 English language arts methods text to be aligned with the Standards this book also addresses their limitations formalist assumptions about literacy learning limited attention to media digital literacies lack of attention to critical literacies and questionable assumptions about linking standards and text complexity to specific grade levels Specific examples of teachers using the literacy practices critical engagement curriculum framework in their classrooms shows how these limitations can be surpassed Features Moves the CCSS framework into a view that literacy is a contextualized social practice Challenges simplistic models that homogenize adolescent learners Adds the important element of critical literacy to English language arts classrooms Provides specific examples of teachers in action implementing these practices Interactive Companion Website with student and instructor resources The Website is designed to foster interactivity through participation in an online teaching planning simulation with a text video or case on one side of the screen and a chat box for instructors and students to share their reactions and planning ideas The Companion Website is linked to a wiki that serves as a repository for links activities units and further reading
