

Graduation Welcome Speech – June 2010

It is my pleasure to welcome families, friends, teachers, and our younger students to graduation day at Wilmington Montessori School.

Earlier this morning, I spoke to you and your families at breakfast. Now, I speak to you as the graduates. I don't know if you all have noticed, but there has been an air of excitement in the halls of Wilmington Montessori for the past week – an excitement that began to peak yesterday when your posters went up in the lobby, graduation practice began, we had our last all school assembly and we all began to listen to Kelly practicing the music for today in the gym. There is excitement in the air and it is all about each of you. This entire school community – your teachers, your parents, grandparents, Aunts and Uncles, and brothers and sisters are so very proud of you today.

I would like to thank each of you for all you have brought to WMS during your time here, many of you since you were only a year or so old. You have brought energy to the school with the Proceeding ICAST 2023 Maya Itasari, ST., MT., Dianti Utami Dewi, ST., MT., Aqila Dwi S., 2023-11-30 The Global Joint Education Center for Science and Technology GJEC at the Graduate School of Science and Technology GSST of Kumamoto University has been hosting the International Student Conference on Advanced Science and Technology ICAST annually since 2008. The purpose is to encourage international collaboration among postgraduate students and young researchers and to foster cooperative development in education and research with partner universities. ICAST is predominantly organized and overseen by students offering a valuable opportunity for them to enhance their leadership and communication skills in an international context. Previously ICAST has been conducted at foreign universities such as Peking University China, Ewha Womans University Korea, Ege University Turkey, Shandong University China, University of Seoul Korea, University of Clermont Auvergne France, National Kaohsiung University of Science and Technology Taiwan, and De La Salle University Philippines in addition to events held at Kumamoto University. We are excited to announce the 18th ICAST scheduled to take place at the Universitas Hasanuddin Faculty of Engineering from September 18 to 20, 2023. All participants will have the opportunity to deliver live oral presentations and showcase posters.

News Bulletin of the Institute of International Education Institute of International Education (New York, N.Y.), 1951 Building a Global University Muralidhar Miryala, 2024-08-09 In today's globalized world, universities strive for excellence by aligning with the UN Sustainable Development Goals and competing in research. Global universities aim to benefit future generations and promote cooperation through exchange programs and research collaborations. This book emphasizes long-term planning, research focus, financial management, online learning, community engagement, and sustainable development goals as integral aspects of global university success. It also demonstrates that universities should prioritize societal values over rankings and popularity. The book is divided into two parts. The first part delves into the global strategies for establishing successful universities worldwide, highlighted by the vice chancellors and presidents from renowned universities of the world. The second part discusses pilot projects and experiences from Shibaura Institute of Technology (SIT) along with successful case studies contributing to top-tier university development. It highlights that collaboration among universities, research institutions, and industries, as well as leadership, strategic decision making, and aligning missions with globalization goals, are crucial for success. For any university in the world, including young universities aiming to become one of the top global universities within a specific timeframe and improve its ranking locally as well as globally, this is the right book as it showcases worldwide expert opinions and case studies.

 Chase, 2008-03-20 This journey into the lives of prep school students is an attempt to understand the pressures and consequences of prescribed gender ideals from their own perspectives and through their own words The chapters of this book are organized around the symbolic opposition these adolescents create as they live eat study and play among their peers and teachers at Bolton Academy The class ethnic and individual differences in the performance of gender reveal how culture and development are interrelated and necessarily fused through the power of agency This inside look at the everyday social interactions of these adolescents reveals how institutions and groups in power incorporate and perpetuate hierarchies
