Through a Glass Darkly Mac Marshall,1982 The Wolf at the Door Geoffrey Cocks,2004 Discovers a Holocaust subtext in Kubrick's films culminating in his 1980 adaptation of Stephen King's horror novel The Shining Maintains that this is reflected in his depiction of harsh struggles with and over power and violence Several of his films deal with war and state power The Shining is seen as an artistic and philosophical response to the horrors of World War II Among the influences on the filmmaker are Hilberg's The Destruction of the European Jews Kubrick's Jewish past and his early years that were affected by fascism and war Kubrick's marriage into an artistic German family also contributed to his preoccupation with the history of Nazi Germany and the Holocaust which were indirectly reflected in his oeuvre The New Monthly Magazine and Humorist ,1848

Commonweal ,1925 Celluloid Vampires Stacey Abbott,2009-03-06 In 1896 French magician and filmmaker George Méliès brought forth the first celluloid vampire in his film Le manoir du diable The vampire continues to be one of film's most popular gothic monsters and in fact today more people become acquainted with the vampire through film than through literature such as Bram Stoker's classic Dracula How has this long legacy of celluloid vampires affected our understanding of vampire mythology And how has the vampire morphed from its folkloric and literary origins In this entertaining and absorbing work Stacey Abbott challenges the conventional interpretation of vampire mythology and argues that the medium of film has completely reinvented the vampire archetype Rather than representing the primitive and folkloric the vampire has come to embody the very experience of modernity No longer in a cape and coffin today's vampire resides in major cities listens to punk music embraces technology and adapts to any situation Sometimes she's even female With case studies of vampire classics such as Nosferatu Martin Blade and Habit the author traces the evolution of the American vampire film arguing that vampires are more than just blood drinking monsters they reflect the cultural and social climate of the societies that produce them especially during times of intense change and modernization Abbott also explores how independent filmmaking techniques special effects makeup and the stunning and ultramodern computer generated effects of recent films have affected the representation of the vampire in film The Judge ,1917 Christian Herald and Signs of Our Times ,1881 Time ,1925 Nature Magazine ,1925 An illustrated monthly with popular articles about nature The Golden Book Magazine ,1924 The Forum ,1925 Asia ,1925 Our Paper ,1906 The
