Throw Like a Girl, Cheer Like a Boy Robyn Ryle, 2020-06-29 A thought provoking journey into the complicated history of gender sexuality race and social justice through the world of sports Have you ever wondered why most cheerleaders are girls Or why some athletes like Caster Semenya have to prove they re women while there s no testing for men And why do athletes like Megan Rapinoe and Colin Kaepernick use sports as a platform for social justice and should they These questions and more are examined in Throw Like a Girl Cheer Like a Boy The Evolution of Gender Identity and Race in Sports Robyn Ryle uses the world of sports to examine the history controversy and current conversations around sexuality race and social justice bringing in the stories of today s athletes to highlight the issues Topics covered include gender segregation gender testing transgender athletes sexuality homophobia globalization race and activism Throw Like a Girl Cheer Like a Boy shows the great strides that have been made in the sports world but there are still questions that remain and work that needs to be done This book brings to attention the ways in which sports can contribute to inequalities while also demonstrating how sports can help create a more just world for everyone

Gendering Bodies Sara L. Crawley, Lara J. Foley, Constance L. Shehan, 2008 Gendering Bodies explains how the social world shapes our physical bodies and how our bodies shape the social world In this remarkable investigation into contemporary ideas of gender sociologists Crawley Foley and Shehan argue that bodies are constantly being gendered or encouraged to participate in heterosexual gender conformity This engendering influences nutrition practices work and employment choices dieting working out cosmetic surgery sexual practices and training or lack thereof in sports or fitness This is an accessible yet comprehensive sociological inquiry into a theory of the gendered body

Throw Like a Girl Shelley Frost, Ann Troussieux, 2000 Throw Like a Girl discusses the benefits of participating in sports choosing the right sport stories on the impact of sports in real girls lives nutrition and exercise information how to get an athletic scholarship and more Includes interviews with such athletes as Lisa Leske of the WNBA Brandy Chastain of the World Cup soccer team and Cammie Granato of the Olympic hockey team 40 illustrations

Reading and Writing Disability Differently Tanya Titchkosky, 2007 Mixing rigorous social theory with concrete analysis Reading and Writing Disability Differently unpacks the marginality of disabled people by addressing how the meaning of our bodily existence is configured in everyday literate society Tanya Titchkosky begins by illustrating how news media and policy texts reveal dominant Western ways of constituting the meaning of people and the meaning of problems as they relate to our understandings of the embodied self Her goal is to configure disability as something more than a problem and beyond simply a positive or a negative and to treat texts on disability as potential sites to examine neo liberal culture Titchkosky holds that through an exploration of the potential behind limited representations of disability we can relate to disability as a meaningful form of resistance to the restricted normative order of contemporary embodiment Incorporating a textual analysis of ordinary depictions of disability this innovative study promises to represent embodied differences in new ways and alter our imaginative relations to the politics of the body

Tomboys! Lynne Yamaguchi Fletcher, 1995 216 A collection of stories, essays and photographs examining and celebrating tomboyhood and its meaning for those tomboys who grew up to be lesbians. Readers will delight in both the similarities and varieties of experience revealed in this tales told with humour, attitude, nostalgia, longing and above all love. Improving Reading Skills Deanne Milan Spears, 1999-08 Designed as a core reader work text for first and intermediate level developmental reading courses, this book teaches reading skills within the context of relevant selections with many issues drawn from books, magazines and newspapers. A variety of exercises and assignments have been included. Many of the reading selections are written by women and for ethnic writers. Word Origins sections are also included; these provide the history of the word, its root and its progression into the English language. Hypatia, 2008 Watercolours Adrienne Ferreira, 2011-03-01 A breathtaking debut about family secrets, a child with an amazing artistic talent and a startling censorship controversy in a small, tension-filled Australian town. The story of a boy artist, a river town and its mysterious underworld. Eleven-year-old Novi just wants to blend in, not easy when you're named after a silkworm and have the most eccentric family in town. A descendent of the first Italian silk growers in northern New South Wales, he is an obsessive artist with a habit of drawing the stories of the people around him and a secret conviction that the river murdered his grandfather. Young teacher Dom Best is new in town and must overcome his lack of confidence to support Novi's talent together with Camille, the enigmatic school librarian. Dom encourages the boy to release his inhibitions and unravel his unusual family history through his art, though little can he imagine the consequences this will bring. Watercolours is a poignant debut novel with a mystery at its heart, an unexpected love story and a surprising twist. Most of all, it celebrates the clarity and colour a child's eye view brings to the adult world. A stunner! It's note perfect and the control of the shifting points of view is incredibly skillful. The descriptions of Novi's painting and his way of seeing the world are gut wrenching. It's a really fine novel. MALCOLM KNOX Argumentation and Advocacy, 1999 Marginal Groups and Mainstream American Culture Yolanda Estes, 2000 They are often portrayed as outsiders: ethnic minorities, the poor, the disabled and so many others all living on the margins of mainstream society. Countless previous studies have focused on their pain and powerlessness but that has done little more than sustain our preconceptions of marginalized groups. Most accounts of marginalization approach the subject from a distance and tend to overemphasize the victimization of outsiders. Taking a more intimate approach, this book reveals the personal, moral and social implications of marginalization by drawing upon the actual experiences of such individuals. Multidisciplinary and multicultural, Identity on the Margin addresses marginalization at a variety of social levels and within many different social phenomena, going beyond familiar cases dealing with race, ethnicity and gender to examine such outsiders as renegade children, conservative Christians and the physically and mentally disabled. And because women are especially subject to the effects of marginalization, feminist concerns and the marginalization of sexual practices provide a common denominator for many of the essays. From problems posed by complimentary racism to the status of gays in Tony Blair's England from the struggle of Native Americans to preserve their identities to the singular problems of single mothers. Identity on the Margin takes in a broad spectrum of cases to provide theoretical analysis and ethical criticism of the mechanisms of identity formation at the edges of society. In all of the cases the authors demonstrate the need for theory that initiates social change by considering the ethical implications of marginalization and criticizing its harmful effects. Bringing together accounts of marginalization from many different disciplines and perspectives, this collection addresses a broad audience in the humanities and social sciences. It offers a basis for enhancing our understanding of this process and for working toward meaningful social change. Antipode, 2003. Imagining Australian Space Ruth Barcan, Ian Buchanan, 1999. Barcan, humanities U of Western Sydney and Buchanan, English U of Tasmania present 14 papers which aim to explore a representative range of Australian spaces through a range of perspectives that have contributed to Australian cultural studies, including semiotics, discourse analysis, phenomenology. Girl to Girl Anne Driscoll, 2000. Read real advice from real girls on which sports are available, how to get along with teammates, how to balance school with sports, and how to deal with overbearing parents and coaches. Line illustrations.
