Tilman Riemenschneider Tilman Riemenschneider,Julien Chapuis,National Gallery of Art (U.S.),Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.) 1999    Sculptures of Tilman Riemenschneider ,1962    Tilman Riemenschneider Tilman Riemenschneider,1967    Tilman Riemenschneider Tilman Riemenschneider,2000    Tilman Riemenschneider Iris Kalden-Rosenfeld,2004 With a catalogue of works generally accepted as by Riemenschneider and his workshop he W rzburg sculptor and woodcarver Tilman Riemenschneider c 1460 1531 worked within established formal traditions yet succeeded in creating works of a kind that had never been seen before Against common practice he left many of his sculptures unpainted This turned them from life like images of saints into works of art far removed from the everyday world of the beholder To see the intricate supremely carved details of Riemenschneider s sculptures the play of light and shade on their glazed wooden surfaces and the moving expressions of the figures faces and gestures is as fascinating today as it must have been when they were created With the help of 225 black and white and 55 colour illustrations both of complete works and of details this book gives a representative survey of the sculptures made by Riemenschneider and his workshop The author is one of the internationally known experts on Riemenschneider    Tilman Riemenschneider, Circa 1460-1531 Julien Chapuis,2004

The Limewood Sculptors of Renaissance Germany Michael Baxandall,1980-01-01 A detail examination of the craftsmanship and lives of German woodcarvers from 1475 to 1525 discusses their artistic styles techniques of carving and place in society    Riemenschneider in Rothenburg Katherine M. Boivin,2021-05-21 The concept of the medieval city is fixed in the modern imagination conjuring visions of fortified walls towering churches and winding streets In Riemenschneider in Rothenburg Katherine M Boivin investigates how medieval urban planning and artistic programming worked together to form dynamic environments demonstrating the agency of objects styles and spaces in mapping the late medieval city Using altarpieces by the famed medieval artist Tilman Riemenschneider as touchstones for her argument Boivin explores how artwork in Germany s preeminent medieval city Rothenburg ob der Tauber deliberately propagated civic ideals She argues that the numerous artistic pieces commissioned by the city s elected council over the course of two centuries built upon one another creating a cohesive structural network that attracted religious pilgrims and furthered the theological ideals of the parish church By contextualizing some of Rothenburg s most significant architectural and artistic works such as St James s Church and Riemenschneider s Altarpiece of the Holy Blood Boivin shows how the city government employed these works to establish a local aesthetic that awed visitors raising Rothenburg s profile and putting it on the pilgrimage map of Europe Carefully documented and convincingly argued this book sheds important new light on the history of one of Germany s major tourist destinations It will be of considerable interest to medieval art historians and scholars working in the fields of cultural and urban history    Tilman Riemenschneider Till Borchert,Tilman Riemenschneider,Daniel Katz Ltd,2012    Art History as a Reflection of Inner Spiritual Impulses Rudolf Steiner, 2016-06-01 13 slide presentations Dornach Oct 8 1916 Oct 29 1917 CW 292 I am going to show you a series of reproductions of slides from a period in art history to which the human mind will probably always return to contemplate and consider for if we consider history as a reflection of inner spiritual impulses it is precisely in this evolutionary moment that we see certain human circumstances ones that are among the deepest and most decisive for the outer course of human history expressed through a relationship to art Rudolf Steiner Rudolf Steiner understood that the history of art is a field in which the evolution of consciousness is symptomatically and transparently revealed This informal sequence of thirteen lectures was given during the darkest hours of World War I It was a moment when the negative consequences of what he called the age of the consciousness soul which began around 1417 were made most terribly apparent In these lectures he sought to provide an antidote to pessimism After describing the movement of consciousness from Greece into Rome coupled with influences from the Orthodox East he showed how these influences transformed as the Middle Ages became the Renaissance The process that begins with Cimabue and Giotto develops deepens and becomes more conscious in the great Renaissance masters Leonardo Michelangelo and Raphael Then this movement continues with the Northern masters D rer and Holbein as well as the German tradition One entire lecture is devoted to Rembrandt followed by one on Dutch and Flemish paintings Themes are woven together to show how past epochs of consciousness and art live again in our consciousness soul period Replete with interesting information and more than 600 color and black and white images these lectures are rich and dense with ideas enabling us to understand both the art of the Renaissance and the transformation of consciousness it announced These lectures demonstrate to paraphrase Shelley that artists truly are the unacknowledged legislators of the age Art History as a Reflection of Inner Spiritual Impulses is a translation from German of Kunstgeschichte als Abbild innerer geistiger Impulse GA 292 Rudolf Steiner Verlag 2000
