presentation on the Tibetan Buddhist path to enlightenment through the lens of an artist's eye and experience. The sacred arts play an essential intrinsic role in Tibetan Buddhist practice. Here one of the great practitioners and master artists of our time presents a guide to the Tibetan Buddhist path from preliminary practices through enlightenment from the artist's perspective. With profound wisdom he shows how visual representations of the sacred in paintings, sculptures, mandalas and stupas can be an essential support to practice throughout the path. This work based on the author's landmark Tibetan text

The Path to Liberation includes basic Buddhist teachings and practices clearly pointing out the relevance of these for both the sacred artist and the practitioner along with an overview of the history and iconography of Buddhist art Tibetan

History of Tibetan Painting David Paul Jackson,1996 The present book is a first attempt at exploring the sacred painting traditions of Tibet from the mid 15th through 20th centuries on the basis of both the surviving pictorial remains and the extensive written sources that survive in the Tibetan language The study of this period of Tibetan art history has in effect been neglected in recent years in favor of the earliest periods Yet the vast majority of extant masterpieces of Tibetan Buddhist painting belong to this more recent period and the relevant written and pictorial resources now available though they have never been fully utilized until now are in fact quite rich The present study attempts in the first place to identify the great founders of the main schools of Tibetan painting and to locate references to their surviving works of sacred art Through recourse to the artists own writings if available to the biographies of their main patrons and to other contemporaneous or nearly contemporaneous sources it has been possible to clarify many of the circumstances of the careers of such famous Tibetan painters as sMan bla don grub mKhyen brtse chen mo and Nam mkha bkra shis who were the founders of the sMan ris mKhyen ris and Karma sgar bris traditions respectively For the convenience of students and researchers the book includes a survey of the main available Tibetan sources and studies both traditional and modern as well as a detailed summary of previous Western research on this subject It also presents the texts and translations of the most important passages from the main traditional sources This richly illustrated volume also includes detailed indices and it will be an indispensable guide and reference work for anyone interested in Tibetan art Tibetan Sacred Art Detlef Ingo Lauf,1976
