

Introduction

Write an introduction to your leaflet. This is the first thing people will read, so it's important to make it interesting and persuasive. You can start by asking a question or making a statement that will grab their attention.

Body

The body of your leaflet is where you provide the main information. You can use bullet points, short paragraphs, and images to make it easy to read. Remember to keep your language simple and clear.

Conclusion

Write a conclusion that summarizes the main points of your leaflet. You can also include a call to action, such as 'Join us today!' or 'Sign up now!'. This is the last thing people will read, so make it memorable.
