The Perils of Perfection Joseph Vukov, 2023-05-20 Are you left dizzy by the vast array of new technologies Skeptical about the latest Silicon Valley craze being worth the hype yet wary of those who would throw these technologies to the curb Me too This book seeks to avoid landmines in our quest for perfection while offering strategies for evaluating both the possibilities and the limits of human enhancement Think of it as a guide for navigating the perils of perfection while embracing the fullness of human dignity Digital Capitalism and Its Limits Michel Bauwens, Ruth Castel-Branco, Mayssam Daaboul, Jane Duncan, Roc Kranjc, Michael Kwet, Seipati Mokhema, Constantine N. Nana, Ujala Satgoor, Vincent Siwawa, Edward Webster, Alex Mohubetswane Mashilo, 2025-04 The Fourth Industrial Revolution 4IR has been described as the next big leap in digital capitalism Digital technologies such as artificial intelligence quantum computing 3D printing and robotisation we are led to believe will bring more progress growth and development while also helping us to resolve the deep and multiple crises the world is in Billions are being invested in these technologies accompanied by sharp geopolitical rivalries to secure an edge in the control over them Volume 8 in the Democratic Marxism series invites readers to think more deeply and critically about digital capitalism and its limits While most governments in the world including South Africa have accepted a techno nationalist narrative and have deliberated on the risks for the planet and humanity the volume interrogates the effects and consequences of advances in artificial intelligence and heightened technological innovation and industrialisation on employment democracy and the climate Viewing the grand social engineering of 4IR through a Marxist lens the volume contributors engage critically with the class project of digital monopoly capitalism and its powerful totalitarian tendencies They question the dangerous technotopian imaginary shaping this digital techno shift the implications of algorithmic data extractivism the securitisation of already weak market democracies the social consequences of digital learning lack of regulation and the power dynamics in the labour process Anchored in techno realism the interdisciplinary perspective captured in this volume puts forward alternatives for democratisation and a just transition to protect human and non human life

Media Industries in the Digital Age Amanda D. Lotz, Timothy Havens, 2024-11-18 The digital communication technologies that emerged at the turn of the century have profoundly disrupted long practiced norms of nearly every media industry In particular internet distribution has fundamentally changed the foundation of the media industry to enable the emergence of new sectors while posing a challenge for others Media Industries in the Digital Age reframes our understanding of media businesses in the light of these substantial changes To develop an integrated understanding of media industries today the book foregrounds the different funding sources that are now common It begins by mapping the foundations and developments of media industry operation and exploring all forms of advertiser funded and consumer funded media to identify connections across sectors including digital and legacy media The final section grounds the book's conceptual work in examples of media making to explore how some old media have successfully adapted to internet disruption and the differences and similarities of media making outside of corporations Looking to the future the book anticipates implications for the emerging metaverse media experiences and the key issues generative AI poses to the sector Ultimately the book argues that the contemporary differences in media industry operation vary by sector but meaningful patterns can be identified by considering how advertiser consumer or government funding sets different priorities Offering a new and original way of understanding the media industries today this book is enlightening reading for students and scholars of media studies and media industries as well as global industry professionals
