Levels of Ambition Alex Pierce, 2026-01-01 Ambition is both a gift and a curse A gift because it can elevate a human being from survival to greatness A curse because it never lets its bearer rest To live with ambition is to live with a fire that refuses to go out Today's culture often praises comfort and convenience as the highest achievements of modern life We are told that happiness is found in safety in stability in the warm embrace of the familiar Yet history has always belonged to the ambitious Civilizations rise on the backs of restless visionaries Revolutions ignite because someone refused to accept the world as it was Every invention that shaped human progress began with the question What if there is more Ambition unsettles the comfortable and comforts the unsettled It is both praised and feared celebrated and condemned Too often ambition is mistaken for greed or vanity In truth it is the universal force that compels growth Levels of Ambition is not another motivational book about thinking big It is a psychological expedition through the hidden stages of human drive Through gripping stories drawn from history science and the modern world Alex Pierce reveals how scarcity comfort and achievement each rewrite the rules of ambition and how most people become trapped long before they ever realize it For more information visit www.CursedWithAmbition.com Is it French? Popular Postnational Screen Fiction from France

Mary Harrod, Raphaëlle Moine, 2024-01-30 This book investigates the recently accelerated phenomenon of mainstream French film and serial television's remarkable popularity not only within but more novelly for European audiovisual narratives outside the domestic context Treating changes that have taken place in France's production landscape during the mass rollout of global streaming platforms as revelatory of broader tendencies in media production and circulation in Europe and beyond the collection explores emergent influential players Omar Sy Camille Cottin Alexandre Aja and Fanny Herrero companies such as Netflix and Gaumont and new genres identities and representations on screen It thus draws together a body of new research by international experts in French and European media production to analyse popular film and television series from France through a postnational lens with regards to both economic and institutional norms and to culture as a whole This book is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com
