The New Deal

The Great Depression of the 1930s wreaked havoc on the United States' economy, leaving millions of Americans unemployed and struggling to make ends meet. In response to this unprecedented crisis, President Franklin D. Roosevelt launched an ambitious and innovative series of programs and reforms collectively known as the "New Deal."

Assuming office in 1933, President Roosevelt faced the daunting task of restoring the nation's economy and instilling hope in the hearts of the American people. The New Deal aimed to provide immediate relief to those suffering the most, while also implementing long-term structural changes to prevent future economic catastrophes.

One of the primary objectives of the New Deal was to tackle unemployment head-on. The Civilian
