Truman, 2021-09-05 Feminist

Speculations and the Practice of Research Creation provides a unique introduction to research creation as a methodology and a series of exemplifications of research creation projects in practice with a range of participants including secondary school students artists and academics In conversation with leading scholars in the field the book outlines research creation as transdisciplinary praxis embedded in queer feminist anti racist politics It provides a methodological overview of how the author approaches research creation projects at the intersection of literary arts textuality artistic practice and pedagogies of writing drawing on concepts related to the feminist materialisms including speculative thought affect theories queer theory and process philosophy Further it troubles representationalism in qualitative research in the arts The book demonstrates how research creation operates through the making of or curating of art or cultural productions as an integral part of the research process The exemplification chapters engage with the author s research creation events with diverse participants

all focused on text based artistic projects including narratives inter textual marginalia art postcards songs and computer generated scripts The book is aimed at graduate students and early career researchers who mobilize the literary arts theory and research in transdisciplinary settings

A Philosophy of Christian Materialism Christopher Baker, Thomas A. James, John Reader, 2016-03-09 A Philosophy of Christian Materialism offers a new religious engagement with the public sphere via means of interdisciplinary analysis and empirical examples developing what the authors call a Relational Christian Realism building upon interaction with contemporary Philosophy of Religion The book argues that the current discourse on public religion is inadequate in addressing the issues now to be faced including material religious practice in the sphere of education the growth of alternative political movements and the developing awareness of environmental concerns and urban social justice Key concepts that support this strategic analysis are entangled fidelities the form of a materialist religious practice the possibility of a relational Christian realism including new developments in how we interpret key categories of doctrine including God and creation salvation and humanity and the post secular public sphere including the emerging phenomenon of postsecular rapprochement namely the coming together of both religious and secular actors in methodologies and politics of pragmatism as well as ethical discourse for the sake of the public commons Co authored by theologians in both the USA and the UK this book represents an exciting contribution to philosophy and practice of religion on both sides of the Atlantic and aspires to be sufficiently interdisciplinary to also appeal to readerships engaged in the study of modern political and social trends

Children's Lifeworlds in a Global City: Singapore Li Mei Johannah Soo, Nanthini Karthikeyan, Kam Ming Lim, Clare Bartholomaeus, Nicola Yelland, 2023-01-01 This book examines connections between policy contexts school experiences and everyday activities of children growing up in the global city of Singapore In particular it explores how Singapore children s everyday experiences inside and outside of school shape their orientations towards educational success Alongside an analysis of school life and educational policies it also considers children s out of school activities including leisure homework and enrichment activities and connections between these and their school based activities The book draws on empirical data from Primary 4 classes in two Singapore schools in the form of student completed surveys classroom ethnographies student responses to a learning dialogues activity and a re enactment of one child s out of school life as well as curriculum and policy analysis It provides readers with an in depth understanding of Singapore Primary 4 children s experiences inside and outside of school including the structure of timetables and pedagogical approaches encountered in school lessons children s enjoyment of activities inside and outside of school children s engagement and wellbeing at school and the impact of Singapore s educational policies on children s learning experiences Moving beyond a simplistic focus on Singapore children s academic performance in international high stakes testing the book offers a comprehensive exploration of their lives inside and outside of school This holistic approach is unique in the Singapore context and contributes to a greater understanding of children s everyday lives in the city Ethnologia Europaea Journal of European Ethnology Tom O'Dell, Robert

Willim,2012-03-26 Ethnography has become something of a buzzword in recent years It is talked about and invoked in disciplines ranging from anthropology and ethnology to literature history business administration and design studies Textbooks that teach ethnography tend to imbue students with the impression that ethnography is a mode of systematic investigation by which the researcher gets closer to the realities of people s everyday lives But how straightforward are these processes in reality As ethnography spreads into new folds of research both within and without the academy the contributions in this volume demonstrate the manner in which field methods are adjusting transforming or taking new forms altogether If textbooks might lead students to believe that observations and interviews are the grounds upon which good ethnography can regularly be produced the authors in this volume take as their point of departure the realisation that ethnography is being used in a multitude of different contexts which forces them and us as readers to question the regularities and irregularities of their own work Ideology and Everyday Life Steve Barnett,Martin G. Silverman,1979
