Sticky Faith, Youth Worker Edition Kara Powell,Brad M. Griffin,Cheryl A.

Crawford,2011-10-04 Many of the statistics you read about teenagers and faith can be alarming Recent studies show that 40-50 percent of kids who are connected to a youth group throughout their senior year will fail to stick with their faith in college

As youth workers are pouring their time and energy into the students in their ministries they are often left wondering if they've done enough to equip their students to carry their faith into adulthood. Fuller Youth Institute has done extensive research in the area of youth ministry and teenage development. In Sticky Faith the team at FYI presents youth workers with both a theological philosophical framework and practical programming ideas that develop long term faith in teenagers. Each chapter presents a summary of FYI's quantitative and qualitative research along with the implications of this research including program ideas suggested and tested by youth ministries nationwide. This resource will give youth pastors what they need to help foster a faith that sticks with all the teenagers in their group long after they've left the youth room.

Pouring In Kim Kurtz, 2018-03-13

The world had changed. Families had changed. Values had changed. The meaning of religion had changed. After author Kim Kurtz graduated from high school twenty five years ago the world was not what she expected. The moral landscape of college and life thereafter was hostile and foreign. She struggled when the faith of her childhood didn't translate smoothly into adulthood. She was disillusioned when the formulas of faith and church that she had always known no longer worked. The messiness of life, the difficulty of marriage and relationships and the many ups and downs she experienced were overwhelming. Her faith couldn't handle it and she walked away. According to research Kim wasn't alone. 75% of young people raised in a Christian home leave the church after they leave the home. Numerous studies show that Christian families are losing their kids and have been for decades. A majority of churched youth aren't developing a personal, powerful and passionate faith in Jesus Christ. And a passive faith quickly fades to no faith at all. We can no longer afford as Christian parents as the church or as a nation to ignore this problem. Pouring In addresses the profoundly difficult task of passing on a lasting faith to future generations. Effectively passing on the baton of faith allows our kids to experience the love, peace and hope that can only come from a genuine relationship with Jesus Christ. Make no mistake: YOU have the power to greatly affect the trajectory of your child's faith.

Sticky Faith Service Guide Kara Powell, Brad M. Griffin, 2016-02-02

Anyone who serves teenagers today knows that more and more young people are eager to make a difference in the world. When students participate in short term missions, service and justice causes, parents and youth leaders hope these experiences will lead to real transformation. But research shows that our efforts don't always stick. If we truly want short term work to translate into long term change, leaders and students must spend more time before, during and after service projects preparing for and processing their experiences. The sessions in this leader's guide will help you create experiences that stick both for the students you take and the communities you serve. This guidebook offers a host of practical and field tested exercises for each phase of your experience, whether it's a half day local service project or a two week trip overseas. Participants will engage in hands on experiences to gain new insights about themselves, their relationship with God, their teammates and the world we're called to love and serve. Each of these steps is a catalyst in helping students apply what they have learned in the field to their own lives back at home. Also included are ideas to help get parents and the whole church engaged in service together. A companion student journal is also available to boost the potential for personal application throughout the journey.

Critical Conversations Tom Gilson, 2016 Christian parents need to be prepared to answer the myriad challenges teens might hear in today's increasingly pro homosexual culture. Why shouldn't gays get married? Who says gay sex is wrong? Does the Bible actually say there's anything wrong with homosexuality? Don't you care that kids are being bullied just for being themselves? To start the discussion, Gilson provides a brief history of the issues beginning with the sexual revolution of the 1960s. He explains how and why cultural attitudes have reversed on this subject in such a short timespan, leaving Christians scrambling for answers. This is perhaps the most complicated and contentious issue Christians face in today's culture. Most churches are poorly equipped to handle it; parents are even less prepared. The good news is that parents need not have pat answers ready before they dive into conversations with their teens and preteens on this difficult topic. Learning together, parents struggling through these issues alongside their kids and leading them to biblical answers has relational benefits. Answers are important, though so manageable nontechnical answers to common questions surrounding this issue are provided as well as a guide to further resources.

Resilient Valerie Bell, Chris Marchand, 2019-12-10 As new research continues to show the cultural gap between secularism and the convictional Church continues to widen, KidMin and youth leaders are asking, "Are we adequately discipling today's kids to lead the future of the church in a culture that's becoming increasingly hostile to the gospel?" For many, the answer is no, and a new conversation around making Resilient disciples is emerging. Resilient is an honest calling to ask robust questions about the future; it is a timely conversation in the midst of changing cultural landscapes and it's a love letter to KidMin leaders and disciple makers to walk this road of child discipleship together. Resilient Child Discipleship focuses on three key areas essential for shaping long-term faith: Belonging, Highly relational ministry led by a loving and caring adult; Believing, Deeply Scriptural ministry rooted in the truth of God's Word and the power of the gospel; Becoming, Truly experiential ministry designed to move kids from simulation to real-world application of faith-based living. Resilient equips you with an innovative biblical and proven child discipleship philosophy to build your ministry around plus practical questions to equip you and your team. Inspires and facilitates the crucial conversation of our time that will shape the future of the church. Loaded with content to help your pastor cast vision and elevate the importance of children's ministry, Helps cut through the clutter of the many responsibilities of KidMin to get to the most essential and effective aspects of children's ministry that most influence long-term discipleship into adulthood. Child discipleship is the leading factor when shaping the future of your church. The culture is changing so rapidly and radically that the future is likely to look far different than the world we know today. The children's ministry community has new conversations to explore as we prepare today's kids to lead the fearless future of the church.

Deep Justice in a Broken World Chap Clark,Kara Powell,2009-08-30 It doesn t take a long list of statistics to convince you that our world is broken Mission trips service projects and supporting children through relief organizations are just a few of the ways that many youth workers engage their students in serving the least the last and the lost As good and helpful as these things may be on the surface that s where they remain at the surface The problems run far deeper than an occasional paint job or fundraising project can solve But it s not hopeless Deep social justice is possible in your youth ministry Following their bestselling book Deep Ministry in a Shallow World Kara Powell and Chap Clark provide you with research and insights that will help your ministry get to the next level In addition to helping you further understand the Deep Design method introduced in their previous book their practical Kingdom of God theology will help you go beyond simply trying to motivate your students to serve those in need and invite your students and maybe even your leaders to wrestle with why those people are in need in the first place You ll hear from well known social justice leaders and youth workers who are making a difference in urban suburban and small town settings including Jim Wallis Sojourners Tony Campolo Eastern University Lina Thompson World Vision Vision Youth John Perkins Christian Community Development Association Shane Claiborne The Simple Way Larry Acosta Urban Youth Workers Institute Rudy Carrasco Harambee Christian Family Center Jeremy Del Rio Community Solutions Inc Noel Castellanos Christian Community Development Association and more In addition to expanding your

Chap Clark,Kara Powell,2009-08-08 Deep Ministry in a Shallow World will show you a new way to prayerfully reflect on the questions you face in your youth ministry every day so you can find the answers that will take it to deeper places That's because authors Chap Clark and Kara Powell have gathered significant research findings that will help shift your ministry paradigm Did you know that the typical strategies we use to build relationships with kids might actually cause them to trust usless because of what this generation has endured recent research on communication could help us move past the witty talks and funny stories we work so hard to develop and instead actually connect the Bible to kids lives studies show that offering students just Jesus and not helping them at home school and in their neighborhoods might not help them very much at all The authors research also led to their development of the Deep Design problem solving process a revolutionary model that will give you better tools than ever before to address every last issue you'll encounter in youth ministry Deep Justice Journeys Kara E. Powell,Brad M. Griffin,2009-05-01 If you really want to make a difference you have to change too The only way that is going to happen is if you spend some time before during and after your service preparing for and processing all that you've experienced The Deep Justice Journeys journal has activities that will get you fired up to serve others and will help make sure your service makes a lasting impact Good Sex 2.0 Leader's Guide Jim Hancock,Kara Powell,2008-12 This organized Leader's Guide gives you everything you need to walk students through the seven sessions of the Good Sex 2.0 curriculum without much preparation so you can lead it yourself Good Sex 2.0 guides your students in understanding enjoying and taking responsibility for their sexuality all without lecturing intimidating or moralizing Good Sex 2.0 Curriculum Kit Jim Hancock,Kara E. Powell,Kara E. Powell, Dr.,2008-12-28 Remember the days when the youth ministry Sex Talk was simple and straightforward Well maybe it wasn't that simple or straightforward but today more than ever sex saturates the world our students are growing up in Everywhere they look or listen they can hear all kinds of messages about sexuality and most of it probably isn't helping them develop a healthy understanding of how their own sexuality fits into God's plan for their lives The need for ongoing dialogue and learning about sexuality and how it connects with faith has never been greater Trying to help students understand how their sexuality relates to God's plan for their lives is a great challenge in a day when just about anything goes Today teenage sexuality includes things that might make some of us blush such as Hooking up Oral sex as a safe alternative to vaginal intercourse Friends with benefits A greater social acceptability of gay and lesbian relationships and experimentation In Good Sex 2.0 A Whole Person Approach to Teenage Sexuality and God you'll find tools to help you and parents of teens involve your students in understanding enjoying and taking responsibility for their sexuality all without lecturing intimidating or moralizing This new and improved seven session curriculum kit gives you a 13
