 Kenneth D. Gadow, Margo A. Mastropieri, Alan D. Poling, 1984      Creating Reading Instruction for All Children Thomas G. Gunning, 1996 This book will not tell you how to teach reading Teaching reading is in large measure a matter of making choices Should you use basal readers or children's books or both Should you teach children to read whole words or to sound out words letter by letter or both Should you have three reading groups or four or no groups There are no right answers to these questions The answers depend on your personal philosophy your interpretation of the research the level at which you are teaching the kinds of students you are teaching community preferences and the nature of your school or school district's reading program      Strategies for Teaching Learners with Special Needs Edward A. Polloway, James R. Patton, 1997 The goal of this book is to present proven approaches to both curriculum development and general teaching methods which when used in tandem will foster educational success in students with special needs Although retaining many principles practices and instructional strategies that have been field tested and proven successful through five previous editions the Sixth Edition has been significantly revised to reflect many contemporary themes in education      New York School Journal, 1894
