A Plea for Embodied Spirituality Fraser

Watts, 2021-04-30 The body is crucial to religious life but there has been little practical attention to how to make a helpful reality of this fact Strong forms of philosophical dualism have been widely abandoned by post war theologians in favour of a more integrated view of human nature but guidance on the role of the body in Christian spirituality remains fragmentary Focusing particularly on drawing out practical implications for religious life and ministry this book will survey the many ways in which the body plays an important role in religions and spiritual life drawing on scientific research theology and philosophy

Reaching Out in a Networked World Lynne M.

Baab, 2008-12-08 A congregation communicates its heart and soul through words photos actions programs architecture decor the arts and countless other aspects of congregational life In Reaching Out in a Networked World communications expert and pastor Lynne Baab examines technologies such as websites blogs online communities and desktop publishing She demonstrates how a congregation can evaluate these tools and appropriately use them to communicate its heart and soul to convey its identity and values both within and outside the congregation Baab urges congregation leaders to reflect on the way they communicate The recent explosion in communication technologies offers many new ways to present values and identity but no one has much experience thinking about how best to use these tools Baab seeks to help leaders use these new technologies with more precision flair and consistency When congregations are intentional about communicating who they are and what they value people in the wider community can get a clear and coherent picture of the congregation and its mission Newcomers and visitors are more likely to see why faith commitments matter and why and how they might become involved in this congregation while current members and leaders will greatly benefit from having a unified vision of the congregation s heart and soul
