Environmental Legacies of the Copernican Universe Jean-Marie Kauth, 2023-04-11 In Environmental Legacies of the Copernican Universe Jean Marie Kauth shows how counter ecological metaphors sprung from the cosmology of the Copernican Revolution influence us still in unexpected maladaptive ways nurturing conceptions of the world that are not only incorrect but enabling of ecocide She argues that grasping these underlying paradigms may help us to alter our thinking and make the radical transformations needed to counter the forward motion of our capitalist post industrial society

Teaching Where You Are Shannon Leddy, Lorrie Miller, 2023-11-07 Teaching Where You Are offers a guide for non Indigenous educators to work in good ways with Indigenous students and provides resources across curricular areas to support all students In this book two seasoned educators one Indigenous and one settler bring to bear their years of experience teaching in elementary secondary and post secondary contexts to explore the ways in which Indigenous and Settler approaches to teaching and learning mirror and complement one another Using the holistic framework of the Medicine Wheel Shannon Leddy and Lorrie Miller illustrate the ways in which interdisciplinary thinking a focus on experiential learning and the thoughtful application of the 4Rs Respect Relevance Reciprocity and Responsibility can bring us back to the principle of teaching people not subjects Bringing forth the ways in which colonialism and cognitive imperialism have shaped Canadian curriculum and consciousness the book offers avenues for the development of decolonial literacy to support the work of Indigenizing education In considering the importance of engaging in decolonizing and Indigenizing approaches to education through Slow and Indigenous pedagogies using the lens of place based and land based education Teaching Where You Are presents a text useful for teachers and educators grappling with the ongoing impacts of colonialism and the soul work of how to decolonize and rehumanize education in meaningful ways

Everyday Schooling in the Digital Age Neil Selwyn, Selena Nemorin, Scott Bulfin, Nicola F. Johnson, 2017-11-20 Today's high schools are increasingly based around the use of digital technologies Students and teachers are encouraged to Bring Your Own Device teaching takes place through learning management systems and educators are rushing to implement innovations such as flipped classrooms personalized learning analytics and maker technologies Yet despite these developments the core processes of school appear to have altered little over the past 50 years As the twenty first century progresses concerns are growing that the basic model of school is broken and no longer fit for purpose This book moves beyond the hype and examines the everyday realities of digital technology use in today's high schools Based on a major ethnographic study of three contrasting Australian schools the authors lay bare the reasons underlying the inconsistent impact of digital technologies on day to day schooling The book examines leadership and management of technology in schools the changing nature of teachers work in the digital age as well as student mis uses of technologies in and out of classrooms In depth case studies are presented of the adoption of personalized learning apps social media and 3D printers These investigations all lead to a detailed understanding of why schools make use of digital technologies in the ways that they do Everyday Schooling in the Digital Age High School High Tech offers a revealing analysis of the realities of contemporary schools and schooling drawing on arguments and debates from various academic literatures such as policy studies sociology of education social studies of technology media and communication studies Over the course of ten wide ranging chapters a range of suggestions are developed as to how the full potential of digital technology might be realized within schools Written in a detailed but accessible manner this book offers an ambitious critique that is essential reading for anyone interested in the fast changing nature of contemporary education
