Wellness Jan Burkins, Kim Yaris, 2023-10-10 With so many state standards and demands of accountability it can be a challenge for teachers to teach in ways that create energy and enthusiasm for reading In their book Reading Wellness Lessons in Independence and Proficiency authors Dr Jan Burkins and Kim Yaris want to reignite the passion in teachers and drive them to instill confidence curiosity and joy in students Burkins and Yaris define reading wellness to include all aspects of readership so we can be our best reading selves The book is built around a framework of four intentions alignment balance sustainability and joy It includes a series of field tested lessons that help children read closely and carefully while still honoring their interests passions and agency as readers Reading Wellness encourages each teacher to shape these ideas in ways that support personal ideals and goals while nurturing a love of reading and a passion for lifelong learning Literate Lives Amy Seely Flint, 2007-11-09 Literate Lives Teaching Reading and Writing in Elementary Classrooms invites readers to consider the complexities of the reading process in diverse settings The text is designed to meet the challenges and needs of undergraduate and graduate teacher candidates in elementary education programs helping them to have a better first year in the classroom experience The text introduces teacher candidates to the notion that reading is a complex multi layered process that begins early in a child s life Reading by all accounts is more than decoding symbols on a page While this is one component of the reading process it is important for teacher candidates to see a broader more complete picture of reading Given the role that reading plays in the elementary school curriculum it is imperative that teachers have a well developed understanding of the reading process and what it means to be a teacher of readers Literate Lives Teaching Reading and Writing in the Elementary Classroom covers the major theories and application strategies of the reading process as well as current debates in the field using a unique framework that builds upon the following themes believing that literacy is based in social cultural and historical contexts assuming an inquiry stance being problem posers and wondering why using kidwatching Goodman 1985 as an assessment tool to make informed instructional decisions recognizing and using the multiple literacies that children bring to the classroom lingering and reflecting on one s decisions in light of what one knows and believes

Partnering with Parents Mary Schreiber,2019-04-01 Caregiver involvement is key to a child s reading success story and libraries are in the perfect position to provide the guidance needed for parents and caregivers to embrace their role as their children s first and most enduring teachers Libraries offer many programs and services for children but sometimes caregivers are left out of the equation especially once children start school Nevertheless parents and caregivers are an integral part of literacy development and libraries are a great place for them to witness modeling practices and participate in engaging family programs that encourage early literacy Mary Schreiber combines personal experience and professional research with the programming expertise of youth librarians from across the country in this guide for libraries looking to make an even greater impact on the level of literacy attained by the children they serve In Partnering with Parents readers will find a wealth of information on how to talk to caregivers about the different stages of a child s reading life what books to recommend to excite both caregivers and children about reading and ways to encourage parent and caregiver participation in library programming with additional information on working with and providing programming for diverse families Whether you are a veteran in the profession or brand new to working with families you will find something in this book that will help you to make your library a more integral part of the education community
