Timeslips 2015 User Manual:

The Oxford Handbook of Intergenerational Connections Elizabeth F. Fideler, 2025 The need to develop connections between members of different generations is being driven by a host of trends and challenges including demographic shifts workforce shortages and multigenerational teams educational gaps caregiving demands youth and senior health and housing problems economic insecurity and rapid technological change Many of these trends and challenges already under way were accelerated or exacerbated by the COVID 19 pandemic This handbook presents what is known about the spectrum of intergenerational initiatives in the United States and abroad the very first to do so in reference book form It addresses specifically what increases cooperation interaction or exchange between any two or more generations and how to foster the sharing of skills knowledge or experience between old and young Comprising 30 chapters each written by leading experts in their field the handbook is organized around five sections Cross Generational Relationships Older Adults Working with Younger People Younger People Helping Older Adults Global Perspectives on Intergenerational Relationships and Recommendations for Strengthening and Sustaining the Intergenerational Movement Handbook on Aging and Place Malcolm Cutchin, Graham D. Rowles, 2024-04-12 Moving away from studies of aging in place this forward looking Handbook focuses on aging and place offering a broader scope and more nuanced complex and enlightening understanding of these two intertwined universals of human experience Not only examining the latest literature the chapters also challenge current thinking on the many intersections opportunities and issues around place and aging that need to be addressed through policy and practice The Oxford Handbook of Mental Health and Contemporary Western Aesthetics , 2025-01-02 Human flourishing depends upon the mental health of the individuals Throughout history various cultural traditions have established and practiced diverse strategies to maintain their community members mental health treat their mental illness and enhance their well being They range from spiritual disciplines religious rituals and philosophical training to communal activities educational instructions and community support It is noteworthy that aesthetic objects and activities are frequently integrated into these strategies They include visual arts music dance story telling theatre and occasions and events made special by certain foods drinks decorations clothes and fragrance This long held and widely practiced integration of aesthetics into promotion of mental health testifies to the power of the aesthetic to affect the well being of humans and their communities The world s major philosophies and religious traditions have recognized this power of the aesthetic For example Plato s proposed censorship of the arts in his utopian Republic indicates his acknowledgement of and a respect for the power of the arts to mold the citizens psyche and character Confucianism also utilizes arts and rituals to promote moral virtues Finally Buddhism teaches the cultivation of mindful practice for human flourishing by developing an alternative relationship with present moment experience such as suffering and distress Today the most dominant methods of treating mental illness in the West are psychotherapy psychology and psychiatry methodologies and practices established and developed in Europe since the nineteenth century Ever since the birth of art and poetry its purpose has been to inspire stir and move people This handbook addresses the valuable role aesthetics plays in psychotherapy and psychiatry exploring both theory and practice
