Silence and Articulacy in the Poetry of Medbh McGuckian

Maureen E. Ruprecht Fadem,2019-12-03 Silence and Articulacy in the Poetry of Medbh McGuckian is an innovative contribution to the scholarship on Belfast poet Medbh McGuckian This book considers the entire oeuvre of this globally respected Irish woman writer a member of the contemporary avant garde with now fifteen U S published volumes and numerous individual publications The author positions McGuckian s oeuvre as political and historical poetry and offers a provocative new assessment of its crafted silences This work argues that it is the muted character of McGuckian s poems a consequence of a defamiliarized language the overwhelming sway of the image and a profusion of intertextual quoting that constitutes their agency and force The silences are read as a response to the precarious positionality of poet and speaker at the site of disaster and the limits of articulacy In line with Rukeyser s notion of the life of poetry the life of McGuckian s silences is located Fadem argues in the poems production as revealed self reflexively and in their prolonged consumption This oeuvre operates as a formidable counter discourse by converting poetry s reception into a much protracted task that redistributes the temporal economy of poem and reader and disrupts the given structures of time place and the order of things The Anamosa Prison Press ,1906 Send My Roots Rain Kim Langley,2019-04-01 Langley offers comfort and encouragement to those struggling with recent loss or grief helping them find language for complex emotions and open their hearts through poetry Send My Roots Rain is a companion full of stories sometimes wry and funny always observant and accepting for letting grief unfold and teach us Langley invites a keen awareness that the passage through grief is the navigation of a narrow strait requiring patience skill and worthy companions These poems can be those companions on the journey Langley has carefully selected 60 poems and arranged them in a meaningful arc beginning with the shock of early grief leading through a sensitive exploration of a new inner space She introduces each section encouraging the ongoing embrace of the healing power of poems writing and entry into the grieving process Each poem is followed by a brief meditation and quotation with questions for contemplation journaling or group discussion    The Magazine of Poetry ,1890

Arabic in Chains Robert Marzari,2006 What distinguishes Marzari's work is his ability to explain complicated matters in clear and even entertaining language Linguists often cut a poor figure here given their propensity to gallop non stop through the brushwood of grammar Not so Marzari He illustrates the potentials and limits of a language that over 300 million Muslims in the Middle East call their mother tongue aside from the many others elsewhere in Africa as well as in Asia who recite Arabic as the language of the Qur'an    British Romanticism and Prison Reform Jonas Cope,2024-12-13 In eighteenth century Britain criminals were routinely whipped branded hanged or transported to America Only in the last quarter of the century with the War of American Independence and legal and sociopolitical challenges to capital punishment did the criminal justice system change resulting in the reformed prison or penitentiary meant to educate rehabilitate and spiritualize even hardened felons This volume is the first to explore the relationship between historical penal reform and Romantic era literary texts by luminaries such as Godwin Keats Byron and Austen The works examined here treat incarceration as ambiguous prison walls oppress and reinforce the arbitrary power of legal structures but can also heighten meditation intensify the imagination and awaken the conscience Jonas Cope skillfully traces the important ideological work these texts attempt to reconcile a culture devoted to freedom with the birth of the modern prison system that presents punishment as a form of rehabilitation Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press

A Girl who Wrote Alan Dale,1902    Time Heals All Wounds Mel Michaels,2006-02-01 This book was written over a three year time period The poems deal with relationships and the struggles of everyday life I often see humor in any situation and the poetry reflects that I am told that I am too sensitive which may be true I can watch a movie and feel the main characters pain and write a poem about it Life is not always funny but I do believe in making people laugh and I think everyone will enjoy the variety of stories I have to tell One might even see a reflection of oneself in something I wrote and perhaps even learn something as I have    The Magazine of Poetry and Literary Review ,1890    The Magazine of Poetry and Literary Review Charles Wells Moulton,1890    The Book of Telling Sharona Muir,2005 After her father died Sharona Muir learned by chance that he had invented Israel's first rocket Muir's parents divorced when she was very young but she adored the father she saw on Saturday outings Itzhak Bentov occasionally told stories of his early days in Israel but it was only after he died that Muir accidentally learned he had been a member of a top secret group of scientists called Hemmed which made weapons for Israel s War of Independence Amazed by this discovery Muir traveled to Israel to meet her father s colleagues a group of idealistsmany of them refugees from Europewho had been summoned by David Ben Gurion to create weapons for a new nation Through the memories they share Muir comes to know the brilliant impassioned and creative young Bentov She weaves her own memories of him into their stories As the truths she seeks emerge Muir elegantly evokes the hubbub of Jerusalem streets the uncommon lives of her hosts and the land and skyscapes of the Negev
